

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear GaSCarians,

Did you notice how full our meeting room was at our August meeting—60 was the correct count. Thank you all for supporting our guest speakers, Clay and Nolan Wiggins.

There has been some discussion about having the SnoCap last Saturday evening cruise-ins year around. At the Board meeting, August 26th, we agreed to keep our schedule as it is. This was due to many holidays and cold weather.

The Board also agreed to give special guest speakers a $25.00 gift card and a GaSCar coffee cup. I think that is a good way for us to show our appreciation to our guests. Clay and Nolan Wiggins were very willing to come, and I think everyone enjoyed the information they presented on batteries.

Get ready for a feast on Tuesday, September 17, at our Salad Supper. Our ladies always do a superb job with their special dishes. Come early to help set up tables. Ernie will be filling in for me at the supper...Doctor's orders to me—no traveling anywhere for three months.

Fall tour, get your classics ready. Take your CB radios. It's fun to chat and listen to conversations. Carol Taylor added this information for the Fall Tour:

Plans are underway for the Fall Tour on October 18 – 20. GaSCar will stay at Lambuth Inn at beautiful Lake Junaluska, NC. Members are currently accessing the reservation link. Deadline for reservations is September 18. Weekend activities include craft shows, an apple festival, visit to Barber's Orchard, the Cherokee car show and touring the Hodge Mopar Restoration Shop. We will also travel on the Blue Ridge Parkway to view the fall colors. As you prepare for the tour please remember to include a CB Radio. Carol Taylor's cell # is 706-840-2959.

You will be provided a list of member cell phone numbers, and Gerald Melchior will give you a checklist for getting your car ready for the tour. Thank you, Carol and Robert, for your leadership as the classic caravan begins on October 18. Sandra and I will miss the fun that we always have on the road with our GaSCar friends,

The 31st Annual Oliver Hardy Festival in Harlem will be held on Saturday, October 5, 2019. Admission is FREE so bring the whole family and make plans to be there. James Thomas will have placards for your car at the meeting on the 17th.

And, don't forget, North Augusta Community Ministry activity, to be held at SnoCap, on Thursday, September 19 from 5:30-8:30 pm. The organization has asked for some of our cars to be there. This organization (CMONA), provides Christ-centered assistance to low income families. The people (some of whom are in our club) provide dignity and hope amid difficult circumstances. You will not be asked to do anything. Just drive your car for a rewarding evening of fun and fellowship.
