

Oct 23 1947

Alexander McDonald

Alexander McDonald, 86, died Wednesday night in the Hubbard hospital in Bad Axe after an illness of five weeks.

He was born in Meade township April 11, 1877 and was a lifelong resident of Huron county. He was a retired farmer and lived the past 45 years in Bad Axe.

Mr. McDonald married Mary St. George in 1903. She died December 11, 1946. On September 6, 1947, he married Mrs. Bertha Steinman.

He is survived by his widow, Bertha, three sons, Ronald, Pontiac, and Howard and John, Chicago; five daughters, Mrs. Mary Russell and Mrs. Lillian Baiski, Bad Axe, Mrs. Clara Carlo, St. Clair, Miss Hazel McDonald, Warren, and Mrs. Jenny Valenzuela, Tucson, Arizona, four step-sons, Jay and Donald Steinman, Farmington, Clare, Caro, and Ralph, Caseville; and two step-daughters, Mrs. Olive Riggs, Indianapolis, Indiana, and Mrs. Nova Harrison, Detroit; also 29 grandchildren and 34 great grandchildren.

Remains are in MacAlpine funeral home, Bad Axe, and will be moved to the Assembly Of God church in Bad Axe at noon Saturday.

Funeral services will be at the church at 2:30 p.m. Saturday with Rev. Ronald Thayer officiating.

Burial will be in Colfax cemetery.