Rally Preview

A trip to the McKenzie River Recreation Area

Tom Nielsen

Jen and I did a reconnaissance to check out the area where our upcoming rally is scheduled. Having not been in the McKenzie River area before, the short of it is: wow. What a beautiful area. We drove out Saturday morning to Rainbow. It is about 48 miles east of I-5 and Eugene on Highway 126. We checked into Harbick's Country Inn around 2 PM. The rooms are clean, roomy, and have a refrigerator. The managers', Robin and Kent, were very gracious. The rate for one night for two queen beds is $85, a single queen is $75. The only downside is they do not allow pets in the room.

We also scouted out the Holiday Farm RV Resort. The RV sites are nestled in a deeply shaded wooded area. Rates are $40 for an RV hookup. Tents are $10 if you double up with someone on an RV site, or $20 in the tent area. There is Wi-Fi, showers, and laundry facilities. Host Jim said our club had 9 of our 15 reserved sites already booked by rally attendees. Fire wood is free, although there is a $10 rental fee for the fire ring. Jim gave us a tour. There was a large outdoor fire pit surrounded by chairs with an adjoining picturesque pond. I asked Jim if our club could use the fire pit, and he said "sure." I asked if alcoholic beverages would be ok, and he said "We encourage it."

We also went to Takoda's Restaurant. Takoda means "Friend to all." We met Brian, the kitchen manager, and talked about options for our upcoming club event - he was very accommodating. Weather permitting, our group can easily fit in their outdoor area, which includes a very relaxing water feature. Inside, there is also a large seating area. We had a nice dinner. On Sunday morning, we had our breakfast at Takoda's: great selection and both Jen and I can vouch that they serve really good coffee.

It is less than a mile from the Holiday Farm RV Resort to Takoda's, and Harbick's Country Inn is kitty-corner from Takoda's. There is a general store and gas station next to Takoda's; the store has a good selection of groceries, camping gear, a decent hardware selection, and goodies. There are also cottages for rent both through Holiday Farms RV as well as McKenzie River Lodging. These cabins are often right on the river and are much pricier than the motel or RV park: typical costs are $175 for a two persons and $225 for four, but you get the cabin to yourself. There is one cabin for $125 and a couple for $300.

The side roads off of the McKenzie Highway/State Road 126 are twisty and in decent shape. There are several covered bridges. We took a ride to the Aufderheide Drive and out to Cougar Dam. It is very scenic. You can turn off of Aufderheide Drive at the top near the dam for a great view of each side of the dam (not for the vertigo challenged). From there, we drove just past the Terwilliger Hot Springs. Fishing and rafting are clearly popular local activities, as well as geocaching.

Some suggestions are to bring shorts and sandals or water shoes because the river is very inviting.
