Carolina Chord Connection is proud to perform for the benefit of

The Center for the Prevention of Family Violence of Pitt County in honor of

Jesse Ray Adams

Jesse Ray was 3 years old when he was shot and killed by his father in Grifton NC as a result of an ongoing domestic dispute. An outpouring of love to help the family with burial costs for Jesse far surpassed the money for burial and grew into a fund that promotes awareness of domestic violence. The family did not want other families to go through the tragedy they had just endured. Jesse's story got national attention and the family decided to use that exposure as a catalyst to make people aware that domestic violence can happen to anyone. Jesse's mother, Christy, speaks publicly about her experience and works closely with the Center for Family Violence Prevention. She is also involved with My Sisters Closet and My Sister's Attic, fund-raising outlets associated with the Family Violence Center. One person cannot stop domestic violence, but we as a community can make a huge impact in preventing another child from having to die because of it. We made a promise to Jesse that his name would not die, and that is what we intend to do in his memory.

If you would like, donations should be made to the Center for the Prevention Of Family Violence

In Loving Memory of Melissa Broadway Trimble

November 23, 1966 - October 19, 2015

Jo Broadway is beginning her sixth year as CCC director. She calls it her "Dream Job" but from the smile on her face and that of her husband Lin, their almost fifty-one years of marriage have also kept her pretty happy. As a long-time barbershopper in Sweet Adelines, Inc., harmony has always been close to Jo's heart. When Jo saw the newspaper ad for women who liked to sing close harmony, she says "It spoke to me." That was February, 1972 and the chorus, from Indiana, PA., was called The Indiana Good Time, which became a legitimate chapter of Sweet Adelines a couple of years later. For lo these 44 years this special brand of harmony has brought Jo many hours of fulfillment as a singer, Assistant Director and Director. "The joy of singing in choruses or quartets and directing the women, and later the men, has given me so much more than I've ever given," she says. "I'm so thankful that God made me in such a way that I can appreciate the beauties of nature and especially of barbershop harmony." If you've never sung in such a chorus, you have missed out on one of the sweet pleasures of life. Do yourself a favor and visit us. We love visitors and welcome new members - Monday nights at 7 p.m. at the Jaycee Parks & Recreation Center.

How do you get a tenor to sound like a baritone?

Have him sing louder, flatter, and miss every third note.

How can you tell when a lead is out of tune?

His lips are moving.

What's the difference between a baritone and an onion?

No one cries when you chop up a baritone.

Why are Barbershop show intermissions limited to twenty minutes?

So they don't have to retrain the bass section.

Invitation to Join the Carolina Chord Connection

Like jazz, barbershop harmony is a uniquely American art form. This style of four part a cappella singing probably came about in the late 1800s and early 1900s from African-American origins. Its modern roots may be traced to the late 1930s when a group of Midwest businessmen got together in a hotel lobby for some singing. The Barbershop Harmony Society resulted and today it consists of about 35,000 men from local chapters in the USA and many thousands more from countries all over the world.

The Carolina Chord Connection was first incorporated as a local chapter of the Barbershop Harmony Society in the 1950s. That group faded but was re-incorporated in 1978 as the Greenville NC Area chapter. It presently consists of about 25 men of different ages and all walks of life. From this group several active quartets have been formed. Most do not have formal musical training.

Our local chapter meets for music practice once a week on Monday evenings in the Jaycee Park Auditorium in Greenville, (East Branch Public Library) from 7:00 until 9:00 PM. Carolina Chord Connection is also available for hire to entertain for groups of all kinds for occasions. CCC also performs gratis for nursing homes, civic organizations, etc., numerous times throughout the year. Our Music Director is Ms. Jo Broadway.

Drop by to our practice meetings any Monday night for some fun and fellowship. You'll be made most welcome. Call Dan Sprau (252-355-2712) our membership VP, for more information.

Let There Be Peace On Earth

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.

Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be.

With God as our Father, brothers all are we.

Let me sing with my brothers, in four part harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now.

With ev'ry breath I take, let this be my solemn vow:

to take each moment and live each moment

in peace eternally.

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me!
