

Marshall Paul Hughes Mitchell MarshallMitchell1@me.com is the 11th pastor of the Salem Baptist Church of Jenkintown.

In 2008, Mitchell founded Different Drummer as an alternative and innovative voice in Hollywood's film industry. Working directly with studios, distributors, and even television networks, Different Drummer is one of Hollywood's leading film marketing and publicity companies. Among Mitchell's clients are George Lucas, 20th Century Fox, The Jonas Brothers, Mitch Albom, Disney Animation, and other major studios. Mitchell has provided leadership roles in historic campaigns such as Life of Pi, Waiting for Superman, Red Tails, Good Hair, Tree of Life, and Princess and the Frog. Mitchell's fingerprints have marked many of the largest and most important films of the last five years.

Prior to Different Drummer's creation, Mitchell served as the Executive Vice President of Wilberforce University. In one year alone, Wilberforce experienced a 41% increase in first-year enrollment.

Mitchell was a co-author of New York State's charter school law in 1998, the board chairman of the state's first charter school, Sisulu Public Charter School, and has been involved in education on an ongoing basis for nearly 20 years.
