JRW Behavioral Health Services
Randall Webber, MPH, CADC
Top News Stories for December 25-31, 2016

As more women drink, some states take action

Walgreens expands availability of naloxone

Israeli army to loosen rules on off-duty soldiers smoking marijuana

Many rural opioid users on long wait lists for treatment

Alcohol may increase risk of some types of stroke but not others

Police referral without arrest lets opioid abusers seek help

New CDC overdose study reduces role of pain meds

Drug to treat alcohol use disorder shows promise among drinkers with high stress

Teens' views on marijuana change After legalization

US path on legal marijuana forces rethink in Mexico

The global experiment of marijuana legalization

Mysterious illness tied to marijuana use on the rise in states with legal weed

Pregnant women are increasingly using marijuana for morning sickness, study finds. That's not good.

New program offering Madison heroin addicts treatment over jail on track for spring start

Browse LCSW/LCPC/IAODAPCA home study courses here.

JRW Behavioral Health Services
855-726-8336 (Toll free)
www.randallwebber.com