FALL 2019

September 8-17, 2019

Arriving Shannon, Ireland per our own schedules, our adventure begins at Bunratty Castle and Folk Park where we'll explore a medieval village and be treated to a welcome banquet featuring food and drink from the period. We'll visit Newmarket-on-Fergus, a union of seven ancient parishes. During the Penal Law period of 1744, the High Sheriff, John Westropp, had all the Churches in these seven Parishes closed. We'll visit the stunning Cliffs of Moher, Galway and the Dingle Peninsula. We'll explore gorgeous Connemara National Park.

We'll enjoy a walking tour of Londonderry and its museum devoted to The Troubles. We'll visit the Peace Bridge, the Free Derry Museum and Saint Columb's Cathedral. On to Ulster, and its American Folk Park and The Emigrant Experience and Botanical Gardens, we'll marvel at The Giant's Causeway; Victorian Killarney and the famed Ring of Kerry; W.B. Yeats' grave in Sligo; On to Belfast, we reserved the entire day to experience its sprawling Titanic Museum (the most visited attraction in Europe). Heading south to bustling Dublin, with its Immigration Museum, Famine Ship and Memorial. We'll explore Dublin Castle and tour a Guinness Storehouse; enjoy an unforgettable Evensong Performance at St. Patrick's Cathedral. We'll take time to explore Trinity College and its famed Book of Kells ... and that is just for starters.

We will be staying multiple nights at some of the finest lodgings in Ireland: the Bunratty Castle Hotel near Shannon (4 nights); the stunning Glass House in Sligo (overnight); the Grand Central Hotel in Belfast (3 nights); and world famous The Mont Clare in Dublin (3 nights).

From ancient Christian ruins to the Irish diaspora, the 1916 Uprising and modern peacemaking - green fields and rugged coastlines - two countries sharing one island, and a history inseparable from our own.
