

Conflict-of-Interest Policy 2014-2015

The board of directors of the Stanly County Arts Council has adopted this conflict-of-interest policy.

The members of the board of directors and any management employees of the Stanly County Arts Council shall avoid conflicts of interest and any conduct which may suggest the appearance of impropriety in the disbursement of funds.

If a potential conflict of interest arises, the board member or management employee must disclose the potential conflict to the board of directors. Further, the board member or management employee shall not vote on nor participate in the solicitation, negotiation, formation, award, arbitration, modification, or settlement of any contract or grant involving any State funds or any dispute arising under such contract or grant when the board member or management employee stands to benefit, either directly or indirectly, from such contract or grant.

A board member or management employee is not deemed to benefit directly or indirectly from a contract or grant if he or she receives only the salary or stipend due to him or her in the normal course of employment with or service to the Stanly County Arts Council.

All board members and employees shall be informed of this policy.

I certify that this is the current Conflict-of-Interest Policy of the Stanly County Arts Council.
