A Note from Rick: Everything is a little stronger on the beef side. Butcher cow and steer prices were up a little bit. Even though it's only a slight increase, we'll take it. At least we are headed in the right direction. The board of trade has also been showing steady gains in the cattle market. The hay market is heading toward winter pace. We should continue to have more loads available to buy. You make hay when the sun shines and when it's cold, you sell it..... We have been working on finalizing sale dates for next year's calendar. We are excited to be able to add some sales that we have not had in the past. Stop by TLA after the first of the year and pick up a calendar. We have so much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving season, including awesome employees and customers. Thanks for being a part of TLA. I spent quite a bit of time in a tree last weekend and saw nothing but squirrels, but man did I enjoy it! My son, Jack, thinks we need to hunt somewhere else. I think he just might be learning patience☺
