Biography

LeRoy C. Eimers, age 80, of Unionville, passed away Tuesday, July 2, 2019, at McLaren Bay Region in Bay City. LeRoy was born June 17, 1939, in Bay Port, to Clarence and Anna (Kelly) Eimers. After graduating from high school, LeRoy proudly joined the United State Army and was honorably discharged. He married Catherine Ross on November 6, 1965, at Caseville Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. LeRoy worked as a self- employed licensed contractor for many years. He then joined the Local Carpenters Union in Saginaw, then retiring at Sebewaing Industries (Tower Automotive) as a Die Welder. LeRoy was an active member at Community of Christ Church in Bay Port. He was a huge volunteer and supporter of the Bay Port Fish Sandwich Festival and loved his hometown of Bay Port. LeRoy was very patriotic, enjoyed woodworking, fishing, camping, gardening, tending to his orchard, was an avid bee keeper, and enjoyed going to coffee hour at the Lamplighter Restaurant in Sebewaing. His family was the most important to him, was truly a friend to all, and had the kindest heart.
