

The Forth of July parade is mostly for the kids. We gather at the park and have Coffee, bagels, and a large variety of breakfast dishes brought by neighbors. The kids decorate their bikes before the fun parade around the Southmoor Park West neighborhood. Neighbors come out to wave as the kids go by. This is a really fun event that is loved by all. This event is sponsored by the RNO and coffee, bagels, and decorations are paid for with your dues.

