Cathy will answer the questions:

- Who should I partner with when networking?
- What are some pointers for running a networking group?
- Where are the most effective places to go for networking?
- When is the best time for a networking event?
- Why do I need to network?
- How do I start a conversation with a guest?

If time permits, Cathy will also share the ABC's of networking.

Cathy believes that effective networking is truly an 'art form' and enjoys taking it to the next level. She has presented to groups all over the Midwest. In October 2018 Cathy was selected as the Kansas Women Business Advocate of the Year by the Kansas Department of Commerce.

Cathy's first book, "Networking on Steroids™" is now available in book and CD format on Amazon.
