GENERAL RULES

1. The management of the Volusia County Fair & Youth Show has the right to amend, add to, interpret and administer the rules and regulations, and to arbitrarily settle and determine all questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incident to the Volusia County Fair, and their decision will be final. Any complaints must be in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of the complaint and delivered to the fair office of the Volusia County Fair Assn., Inc. at 3150 E. New York Ave. DeLand, FL 32724. Any evidence of fraud coming to the attention of the fair management will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.
2. Exhibitors must live in Volusia County. Youth must meet age requirements as of September 1 of the current year, and be enrolled and in attendance in an elementary school, high school or home school in Volusia County at the time of entering items in the Volusia County Fair & Youth Show.
3. Social Security or Federal ID Number: If a Social Security Number or Federal ID Number is not provided, the Volusia County Fair reserves the right to not issue premium checks or money. Any exhibitor with a premium amount of $100 or more will be required to provide a Social Security Number or Tax ID Number.
4. Premium book and official entry forms are available online at www.volusiacountyfair.com. A copy of the premium book can be obtained at the fair office (no e-mail, fax or mail).
5. All exhibits entered for competition shall be subject to the control of the superintendent of the department, with the approval of fair management, in which they are exhibited. Exhibitors are not permitted to remove, handle, rearrange, improve or disfigure the exhibit under any circumstances. No exhibit shall be removed in whole or part during the period of the fair, except by permission of the fair management. The fair reserves the right to not accept late or incomplete entry forms.
6. Removal of exhibits: Entry exhibits not picked up on the removal day or Monday after the last day of fair will be held in the fair office for seven (7) days only. The fair can't store any exhibits and therefore, the fair association assumes no responsibility in case of loss or damage to exhibits not removed on the removal day.
7. The fair management reserves the right to refuse any entry deemed unsuitable as a Volusia County Fair & Youth Show exhibit.
8. Decision of the judges is final. Exhibitors, parents and general public are not allowed in the building(s) during the judging of exhibits.

Judging Method - AMERICAN SYSTEM:

9. Exhibits in this system, are compared against a standard of perfection, as well as against the other entries in the completion. All exhibits in a particular class are looked at and ranked with only one selected for first place, second place and third place. If there are no high-quality exhibits, at the judge's discretion, exhibits may be placed in the appropriate position, even if it is second or third place.
10. For rules and regulations governing each department, see rules in that department.
11. Responsibility: Upon signing the Volusia County Fair & Youth Show entry form, the exhibitor, parent and/or guardian agree that the Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. and the County of Volusia and/or its representatives are not to be held responsible for any exhibit entered for exhibition or for personal injury due to accidents, fire, theft or providential destruction. The fair association will exercise responsible vigilance in the care of exhibits for exhibition, but exhibits are entered at the owner's risk. Any exhibits entered the Volusia County Fair & Youth Show may be photographed and used by Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. for advertising. The Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. assumes no responsibility in case of loss or damage to exhibits from any cause and upon this condition only are exhibits accepted.

Premium award checks and money:

12. Premiums will be paid based on the cash and judging award reports, which must be verified and signed by the department superintendent. Premium checks and money are given on the removal day when exhibits are picked up. Premium checks awarded by the Volusia County Fair & Youth Show shall be cashed by the exhibitor within ninety (90) days from the last day of the fair. Premium monies awarded to an exhibitor, will be held at the fair office for sixty (60) days after the last day of the Volusia County Fair & Youth Show. If the exhibitor fails to timely collect money sixty (60) days or negotiate a check, after ninety (90) days, all money due to exhibitor shall belong to the Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. and the exhibitor shall be deemed to have made an unconditional and irrevocable gift of said monies to the Volusia County Fair Association. ## Mitchell/Bjorkman Antique Barn

Mitchell/Bjorkman Antique Barn

Antique Barn Superintendent:

Co-Superintendent:

Assistants:

Country Store Superintendent:

Assistants:

Rowena Bjorkman 386-228-3707

Gary Bjorkman, David Jones & Gary Henrichs

Lisa Bjorkman

Richard Bjorkman & Rich Bjorkman

MODEL TRAIN ROOM & DISPLAYS

Model Train Superintendent:

Bud and Sylvia Bahr

386-423-2078

The model train display is for model train enthusiasts of all ages. New train exhibits are added to the display each year.

1939 WORLD'S FAIR DIORAMA'S

The dioramas from the 1939 World's Fair in New York were donated to the Volusia County Fair in 1982 by James Burkhalter. In 2007, the dioramas were redone to their original state by Mr. Burkhalter. The dioramas are on permanent display in "Mitchell/Bjorkman Antique Barn" by the model train display.

"MITCHELL/BJORKMAN ANTIQUE BARN"

As you enter "Mitchell/Bjorkman Antique Barn" you will step back to the days that are recalled as "The Good Old Days". Walking through "Mitchell/Bjorkman Antique Barn" it seems that you are in the days of an era long ago.

When walking through the Antique Barn, you will notice the preservation of energy, a fire-less cooker, a dog treadmill and many other interesting exhibits. There is horse drawn surreys, buggies, wagons and a chuck wagon, hand tools crudely made of wood and stone, and handmade wood carvings and machines that were used for everyday basic needs.

Stop by the "Frank Bastler Rock Shop," in the Antique Barn, where you will see a large display of rocks, minerals and gems on display. There will be jewelry being made from gems, rocks and minerals.

Don't miss these displays outside the Mitchell/Bjorkman Antique Barn:

"Orey Crippen's Antique Engine Display"

Old engines are on display and running every day.

"Harvey Dunn Blacksmith Shop"

"Paul Holt Antique Gas Station"

"The large display of tractors"

READ THE RULES

Rules: Youth & Adult:

1. Exhibitors must live in Volusia County. Youth must meet age requirements as of September 1 of the current year and be enrolled and in attendance in a daycare or in an elementary school, high school or home school in Volusia County at the time of entering items in the Volusia County Fair.
2. Judge(s) shall award only one 1st, 2nd or 3rd place in a class according to merit and without merit, the judge shall make no award. This rule applies whether there are one (1) or more entries in a class. The judge's record is the only guide for awards. Premiums will not be paid according to ribbons — ribbons can be removed, misplaced, lost or replaced. Only articles deemed worthy will be awarded ribbons and award money. The decision of the judges is final.
3. No changes will be allowed once entry form is accepted in the fair office.
4. A claim check is issued for each exhibit and must be presented to claim exhibits and awards.
5. A single official entry form authorizes the fair the right to use an entered recipe, at a future date in a recipe book. A recipe can be submitted only once every two (2) years (no repeats of a recipe in consecutive years). Members of the same family or household may not use the same recipe. Do not e-mail, fax or mail recipe forms.
6. Use of commercially prepared mixes and frostings, pie shells or canned fillings for bakes goods or candies will disqualify the exhibit (except where adaptive measures are permitted).
7. Unless prior arrangements are approved by superintendent, no breads, cakes, cookies, pies or candies will be returned and must be submitted on disposable plates. No plates, pans or dishes will be returned.
8. All confectionary arts entries must be done within the past year and can never be re-entered.
9. All divisions may be entered, but only one (1) per class per division. For example: one (1) type of bread, one (1) type of cake, one (1) type of candy and one (1) type of cookie (different divisions); but NOT a chocolate cake, a spice cake and fruit cake (same division).
10. Commercial exhibits excepted only in designated divisions (decorated cake, decorated cookies). Commercial exhibits are NOT excepted for gingerbread design.
11. Exhibitors must follow special requirements listed under individual divisions, especially for size and construction of display bases. Any deviations must be approved by the superintendent.
12. In the absence of competition or if the exhibits are inferior in quality, only such awards, as exhibits merit, will be awarded at the discretion of the superintendent. Superintendent's decision is final.
13. The Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. reserves the right to reject any exhibit not considered suitable, in poor taste, being too large, too heavy or too small to be displayed properly, or being in non-compliance with these rules and regulations.
14. The Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. assumes no responsibility for loss or damage to exhibits.
15. The Volusia County Fair Association, Inc. assumes no responsibility for items not picked up on removal day. The fair does not store items.
16. Award money is given on removal day. After removal day, award money will be available in the fair office until sixty (60) days after the last day of the fair. Award money is not mailed.

The fair reserves the right to not accept incomplete or late entry forms.

Rules: Youth and Adult:

1. Exhibitors must live in Volusia County. Youth must meet age requirements as of September 1 of the current year and be enrolled and in attendance in a daycare or an elementary school, high school or home school in Volusia County at the time of entering items in the Volusia County Fair.
2. Judge(s) shall award only one 1st, 2nd or 3rd, in a class, according to merit and without merit, the judge shall make no award. This rule applies whether there are one (1) or more entries in a class. The judge's record is the only guide for awards. Premiums will not be paid according to ribbons — ribbons can be moved, misplaced, lost or replaced. Only articles deemed worthy will be awarded ribbons and award money. The decision of the judges is final.
3. If an item is not listed in a canning division or class it will not be accepted.
4. No changes allowed once the entry form is accepted in the fair office.
5. Entries must be processed within the calendar year, except for wine, beer & liqueurs.
6. An individual may enter only one (1) item under each class, not to exceed fifteen (15) entries.
7. All items must be prepared following USDA Guidelines as to approved processing methods.
8. Judges may open product to test for flavor and consistency.
9. The only acceptable containers for sealed exhibits are standard canning jars and lids. Jars must be clean. Rusty lids or rings or dirty jars will not be accepted. No wax or paraffin may be used to seal jars. Unsealed jars will not be accepted. Only dried exhibits, oil, vinegar and juices may be in non-canning containers. Wines, beer and liqueurs need not be sealed, but must have new corks or metal caps. Do not place labels on entries. Meats and vegetables must be processed by pressure canning.
10. A claim check will be issued when the item is delivered and must be presented when item is picked up on removal day.
11. The Volusia County Fair & Youth Show takes no responsibility in case of loss or damage to items not picked up on removal day. The fair does not store items.
12. Award money is given on removal day. After removal day, award money will be available in the fair office until sixty (60) days after the last day of the fair. Award money is not mailed.

The Volusia County Fair Technology Education Program is an activity designed to encourage the understanding of technology and development of craftsmanship among secondary students enrolled in engineering and technology education. The program offers awards for excellence demonstrated at the county level competition at the Volusia County Fair, DeLand, Florida.

Project eligibility:

Any entry made in school under the supervision of a technology education teacher and which qualifies according to the rules and regulations may be entered. At least 70% of the project must be fabricated in the school laboratory. Entries in divisions 1001, 1002, 1003 and 1004 must be individual entries. Team/class projects may be presented for display only. Division 1005 may be individual entries or team projects.

Numbers of entries:

All divisions may be entered but only one (1) entry per class. For example, you may enter one (1) entry of a residence drafting project and one (1) entry of an object drafting project and one (1) entry of an engineering project and one (1) entry of a metal table top object: these are all in different classes. You may not enter a drafting of an airplane engine and a drafting of another type of engine, these are in the same class.

Judging:

1. The Danish System of judging will be used where there can be numerous blue-ribbon awards with a 1st, 2nd and 3rd awarded in Divisions 1002 and 1003.
2. Projects completed in the past school year are eligible for this year. Projects exhibited in the fair last year are not eligible.
3. All place winners in Divisions 1002 and 1003 only are judged against each other for the Best in Show awards.
