

USCCA Basic Handgun Course

8:30am-2:30pm

Location: Castlewood Rod & Gun Club

Cost: $100

This class is a hybrid of the USCCA Basic Handgun course and the NRA Basic Pistol course. It provides the student with the knowledge needed to safely handle and shoot a handgun. It also provides an introduction to defensive shooting fundamentals.

Teaches

- Basic knowledge, skills, and attitude for owning and operating a pistol safely.
- Provides a hands-on introduction to the safe handling and proper orientation to one or more pistol action types (learn about pistols prior to purchasing one).
- Universal safety rules
- Pistol parts and operation
- Ammunition types
- Shooting fundamentals
- Provides an introduction to defensive shooting fundamentals
- Range rules

Contact us to register:

724-431-7195

Training@personalsafetysolutions.com

www.personalsafetysolutions.com

Instructor background:

Ed Bella is a multi-disciplined certified NRA instructor, USCCA certified instructor, a NRA range safety officer and a NROI certified USPSA range officer. He has been a practical competition shooter for over 18 years. He is also a Match Director for local practical pistol, steel challenge and multi-gun competitions.

