Session One:

Finding Love in All the Right Places
How will I know when I am in love?

If we do not fulfill our need to be loved the way God intended, we will find ourselves looking for love in all the wrong places.

Session Two:

There is More to Purity than Physical Abstinence

Physical purity always starts with emotional purity. If a person never violates the emotional boundary of purity he/she will never violate the physical boundary.

Session Three:

Being Faithful to Your Future Spouse

Faithfulness to the person you will eventually marry begins before you meet.

Who should attend: Parents, Grandparents, Teens, and Single Adults. Parents who bring their teens and mature junior high age children will greatly benefit from hearing this information together. Younger children may attend as long as they are able to sit quietly without disturbing others. Nothing will be said that will violate a child's moral innocence.

There is no cost to attend this event. A freewill offering will be taken and light refreshments will be provided. A table of books and other resources will be available for purchase. Please note: we are unable to provide child care at this event.
