

Western Association of Educational Opportunity Personnel
Service Council Committee Report
2019 – 2020
Friday, May 29th, 2020

Committee Name:	Council for Opportunity in Education (COE) Fair Share Campaign
Committee Chair/Co-Chairs:	Laura Orozco and Ana Prado
Committee Members (if any):
Committee Description: The COE Fair Share Campaign encourages WESTOP members to provide personal contributions in order to provide COE with funds to run and function. COE is an advocate of TRIO programs, reaches out to the Department of Education and lobbies on behalf of TRIO programs.

Committee Goals & Priorities

- Increase membership and contributions to the Fair Share Campaign
 - Institutional memberships, personal contributions and 10-for-10 campaign
- Ensure that the membership follows through on their commitments
- Help COE raise 100% of their goals by Tuesday, June 30th, 2020
- Help WESTOP and the WESTOP California region raise 100% of their goals.

Committee Updates

- As of Friday, May 29th, 2020:
 - The WESTOP Fair Share Campaign has raised $13,910.05
 - 80% of our goal
 - The WESTOP California Fair Share Campaign has raised $10,336.00
 - 80% of our goal
- We reached our goal of 10-for-10 campaign
 - Horacio Aceves participated in the COE Policy Seminar
- $300 Discount for memberships that expire between July 1st to December 31st ended May 29th

- Thank you for those that participated in the COE membership webinar on Tuesday May 26th with Alvin Phillips
 - Since the council is a technical or professional organization, costs of an institution's membership in the Council may be paid with federal funds

Recommendations

- Please renew your institutional membership.
- Please donate and encourage your team to donate to COE. You can donate at any time by reaching out to your Fair Share chairs or by using the online tool at coenet.org. Please follow up with our committee when you make an online contribution so that we can ensure your contribution is added to the WESTOP California chapter.
