

Become a Volunteer Storyteller in Broomfield, Erie, Thornton, or Westminster

Ignite Imagination ★ Encourage Literacy ★ Connect Generations

Broomfield Spellbinders® Storytellers share the rich oral tradition of tales that teach and enchant. Spellbinders® volunteers usually adopt a classroom and tell—rather than read—stories to students. Working with teachers, volunteer storytellers enhance literacy, stimulate imagination, and broaden multicultural understanding.

A Broomfield Spellbinders® Volunteer Storyteller:

- ★ Has more FUN than you can imagine!
- ★ Learns & shares many types of stories (folktales, fairytales & more)
- ★ Has access to extensive collections of stories and online resources
- ★ Tells stories on a regular schedule to students in local schools
- ★ May tell stories at senior facilities and community events
- ★ Receives on-going training and support:
 - ☒ 12 hours of instruction and practice prior to any telling
 - ☒ one-on-one consultation with a Spellbinders® Certified Trainer
 - ☒ the opportunity to shadow experienced storytellers
 - ☒ mini-workshops and practice opportunities at monthly meetings
 - ☒ interaction with fellow volunteers for story ideas and suggestions
