GOLD RIVER HIRES BRAD MCRAE TO ROLE OF CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

May 17th, 2019

The Village of Gold River would like to welcome Brad McRae as the new Chief Administrative Officer. Brad has 20 almost years experience in both municipal and provincial government, holding senior positions in Lillooet, Lantzville, and Nanaimo.

Brad brings a collaborative based approach, as well as a high degree of education and practical knowledge. Brad will be joined by his wife Lori and his 9-year-old daughter Maisie in the coming months.

Mayor Brad Unger stated, “After an exhaustive search I believe we found the right fit, not just in skills, but in personality which will benefit the Village for many years. I have gotten to know Brad over the last several weeks and have found him to be kind, approachable, and eager to roll up his sleeves to help move the Village into the next phase of Gold River’s Future”.
