Meeting was called to order at 6:05 pm.

Recording Sec: Minutes from the September Board meeting were read. M/S/P to accept with addition of Rita Farmer in attendance and correction to Clayton Mooney's name.

Treasurer Report: Report Distributed. Not everything from Show is in but estimated profit should be around $25,000. Motion to accept as presented. Dues are now due. Bulletin will have renewal sheet to be returned with dues. Dues may be paid on CKC Website via PayPal. Renewal Form is also located there.

Corresponding Secretary: Thank you notes received from several judges. Miscellaneous inquiries about shows.

Membership: Nothing

Bulletin Secretary: If you have brags or any information you would like to share, please send to Kelli.

Outanding Rules: To be added to Standing Rules

1) Annual Meeting – At the September meeting, should there not be enough qualified or willing members to fill all open positions, the Nominating Committee can elect to submit their list with vacancies. In October nominations of members who met obligatory meeting requirements may be made from the Floor for these vacancies or they will be filled in January by appointment from Board of Directors. 2) All members are REQUIRED to complete Membership Renewal Form whether Regular or Lifetime Membership which is submitted at the time dues are paid. Attendance at Christmas Party and July Picnic count as one meeting.

3) Christmas Dinner will be free for those CKC members who have attended at least 3 meetings a year. This will go into effect December of 2023.

Website: Jim Lawrence reported Go Daddy has offered CKC to move to a more secure site on the Web. Jim feels this is a good option and will act on it.

Training Classes will begin med to late February.

Show Chair: Carlene mentioned we had a very successful show. More information will be given at General Meeting

Update: Matt has withdrawn his name on Nominating Slate for President.

Motion to adjourn: 6:58 pm M/S/P

Respectfully Submitted

General Meeting Minutes

Tri State Exhibition Center – Ag Hall

October 11, 2022

Attendance: 22 members 1 guest

Program: Kelli Whitfield spoke about her new Training Building and that she was offering Scent Work Classes. She then spoke of how Scent Work originated to locate leaks in pipelines and how it has progressed through the years as location of drugs, health issues, cadaver dogs, avalanche dogs and other very beneficial uses. If you are interested in classes on this or other fun activities with your dogs get in touch with her. She is interested in working Earthdog Training. Dogs must be able to go through a 10” tunnel. Thank you Kelli for an interesting program.

Recording Sec: Minutes from September meeting were accepted as corrected.

Treasurer Report: Treasurer Report distributed and approved as presented. M/S/P Dues are now due. Membership Form is to be completed and returned with dues. You can pay dues on the CKC website using PayPal. Renewal Form is also available on site.

Corresponding Secretary Report: Thank you notes from some Judges were received.

Committee Reports:

- Training Classes- Will be starting in mid to late February
- Delegate Report – Talked about two terms for Board Members. Voted for points for class dogs receiving Group Placements in the Regular Groups 1-4.
- Christmas Party – Catch has been contacted but they haven’t gotten back with price. May look for another location. Date of Christmas Party will be December 6, 2022
- Bulletin: Membership Form will be included in next month's Bulletin

Show Report: Carlene

- Great Entry. Thank you from the Judges for great show and food. They loved the hospitality!
- RV’s – Mike reported it went mostly OK! Thanks to Marc for his work during the entire shows. Also thanks to Jerry for coming in on Monday to tape off the sports for parking.
- Eye Clinic was a success. Thanks so much to Shirl Fischer for doing eye drops the entire day. We had 50 dogs tested.
- Jackie and Carlene will be meeting with TriState tomorrow to pay and discuss plans for the future.
