Quotes:

“Kayla is a bright, hard-working and caring young woman. She has been in my employ for nearly a year now, and during her time here, she's displayed tremendous character, thought outside the box and has on many occasions anticipated guests' needs. I would be lucky to have all my employees display her ethic.”

“I would like to greatly and with immense appreciation thank the donors of the Anchor Scholarship for this honor. I never thought I would be in the position I am in today – attending the school of my dreams...studying the things I love – English and Environmental Studies. I was scared for a long time to pursue these two wildly different passions of mine at the same time, until I realized I could bring them together...as an environmental journalist....Thank you for seeing my drive and my will to reach my goals - furthermore, thank you for assisting me in those goals. I could not be more grateful.” Kayla
