The Story of Zacchaeus

By Paul Dallgas-Frey

There are two things...

...you should know about Zacchaeus.

Zacchaeus was a little man.

And Zacchaeus was a rich man.

And nobody liked him very much.

Okay, that's three things.

Nobody liked Zacchaeus...

...mostly because he got rich taking money from other people and giving it to the Romans.

Nobody liked the Romans much either. That was because they came in from another country like a bunch of big bullies. They came with all their soldiers and swords and spears and stuff and made people do things they didn't want to do, like give them money.

That's what Zacchaeus did. He collected money for the Romans. They called it "collecting taxes." Some of the money he gave to the Romans - but lots of it he kept for himself. And that's how he got rich.

Zacchaeus was a very rich man...

And Zacchaeus was a little man... without a lot of friends.

Zacchaeus lived in a town called Jericho a long time ago. You might remember Jericho, if you heard the story about the walls that came tumbling down when the trumpets blew. But that was way before Zacchaeus' time.
