

Daniela Cigularova

Daniela Cigularova serves as the Director for Transfer Initiatives at Old Dominion University (ODU). She works directly with university leaders, academic departments, and support units to enhance transfer enrollment and retention and develop effective policies and practices impacting transfer student success. Daniela Cigularova is a member of the SCHEV State Committee on Transfer, ODU Women's Caucus Board, ODU Association of University Administrators, and City of Virginia Beach Grow Smart Policy Board, among others. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Banking and Finance from the University of Economics in Bulgaria and Master of Science in Student Affairs in Higher Education from Colorado State University. Daniela Cigularova is a graduate of the 2015-2016 Senior Leadership Seminar for Women Administrators and is currently serving as the Virginia Network Institutional Representative for ODU. Daniela's career spans 19 years of service to students in Europe and the United States. She continuously strives to forge new connections and partnerships in support of women success.