Coming attraction

Advent, which marks the beginning of the church year, is “the first gleam of Christmas,” writes W.E. Sangster. “It heralds the entrance of the Divine into human history; it is heaven descending to earth; it is a great event casting its brilliance before it.” Sangster adds: “It is as though a trumpeter had taken his stand upon the turrets of time and announced the coming of the King. ‘Get ready,’ he seems to say. ‘Get ready. He is coming!’”

Tree of Life Church: united in worship, sharing Jesus and serving all people.

Dear Tree of Life Members and Friends, November 19, 2019

To celebrate Three Kings Days (January 6), the conclusion of the Christmas Season on the day of Epiphany, our church will be collecting donations for our third annual “Three Kings Mission Gift”.

This year the three recipients of this mission offering will be: (1.) Lake Chautauqua Lutheran Center, (2.) the Ninos de Montana Children’s Project (Children of the Mountain) Jason Guity and (3.) a local family in need.

All donations can be specifically designated for one or more of these causes, or can be equally divided between all three. If you are giving cash or check, please specify how you want your donation divided: 1. Lake Chautauqua Lutheran Center, 2. Ninos de Montana Children’s Project or to 3. A Local family in need. Please make all checks out to Tree of Life Lutheran Church and the funds will be distributed as requested.

Donations will be accepted from Sunday December 1st to Sunday December 29th for this year’s “Three Kings” Mission Effort. Thank you for supporting the Three Kings Mission!

Mission Message

MISSION SUPPORT

This is the season of pledge cards and annual budgets, so a review of Mission Support seems appropriate.

Through God's grace, we are freed in Christ to love and serve our neighbors. By sharing your God-given time, talents, and financial resources with your church, you are participating in God's work in your community and around the world.

YOUR CONGREGATION: when you make a financial gift to your congregation, the congregation's council stewards those funds to support the work of your congregation. In your annual budget, a portion of your offering is designated to be shared with the Upstate New York Synod. This is called Mission Support. If you do not see a line item in your congregation's budget called Mission Support, ask why not.

YOUR SYNOD: All the congregations' Mission Support is stewarded by Bishop Macholz and the synod leaders to support the work of the synod. Things like nurturing congregations and rostered leaders, camps, colleges, seminaries. Synods designate a percentage of the Mission Support funds to be sent to the churchwide organization, usually 40-50%.

CHURCHWIDE: Mission Support dollars are used to respond to local and worldwide ministry opportunities, like new & renewing congregations, chaplaincy, advocacy, multicultural ministries, missionaries, hunger and disaster programs.

Watch a short video to learn more. Go to Youtube search, and type in "Where does your offering go?"

We are church together for the sake of the world. God's Work. Our Hands.

*God's Work. Our Hands.

Pastor's message..

Walking Together in Advent: God is with us

Pastor Tara Lamont Eastman

Over the past six months Tree of Life Church council has been reading and discussing the book, “Together: Community and a means of grace” by Larry Duggins. The purpose of the book is to help churches to work from the roots of their faith to reach out to their community in ways that connect to what is central in the lives of people: family and children, work and vocation, common interests that connect with others, and gathering around table that support health and wellness.

As we have read and discussed this book, we are learning to look and cultivate ways that the ministry of Tree of Life already connects or can better connect with these points of family, work, personal interests and food.

In a historical context, church community “acts as a means of grace that establishes human bonds that facilitate and encourage the flow of God’s grace into people’s lives.” (Together) Historically, the ways church has lived into this role have been through group prayer, ritual, singing, teaching and worship of God.

In light of the challenges and changes in the lives of many people, what are the ways that the church can aid in developing community?

From coffee shops, small group gatherings, food trucks, support groups and various youth programs and activities; the variety of possible ways for church to be the church are vast.

If we consider the gospel text of Matthew 18:20: “For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.”, how might that impact our perspective on community space that functions to the mission of the church?

Briefly said, church (ideally) is a relationship building environment between people and God and God and people. So how can the church and our church live out it’s call AND connect with families, work, interest and food?

In this season of Advent, we focus each week in preparation for Christmas, waiting for the birth of the Christ child. We look through the lenses of hope, joy, peace and love to help us frame this time of waiting and anticipation for Emmanuel – God with us.

For the church, we long to be healthy, vibrant and whole as we are supported by the Holy Spirit in our call to be “church”. As a church we are called to come and worship AND go and serve. As a church we are called to preach the gospel AND be recipients of the good news of Jesus. There is a both - and tension in the experience and existence of the church. We are to receive as well as give. We are to be a group – but retain an atmosphere of openness that makes it seamless for people to become a part of the group – who then welcome people to the group – who then...

The church in Advent is a time of waiting and living into the hope, joy, peace and love of the coming Christ. The church in Advent is called to a space of openness, imagination and possibility that closes the gap and helps all people to know and be part of this community redeemed and used by God.

So how might we live into this call of engaged opportunity? How might we prepare the spaces that feel so familiar to us – for those who aren't there yet? Where might we step out and meet with people who might need encouragement to even consider crossing the church building threshold?

Advent is a time of active waiting, hoping, joy bearing, peacemaking and love giving – and as church we are called together to live out this call.

It may help us to remember how church became a community space for each of us so that we can help to make it so for others.

What groups/ experiences or “works of mercy” in church community have helped your faith grow the most?

What faith growing space is needed by your friends and family who have not yet found church community?

As we actively wait this Advent, may God show us the ways to better connect with people in authentic ways that express the hope, joy, peace and love of Jesus. May the Holy Spirit show us the roads to travel to the people that long to hear this good news of a people, place and God who loves them more than can be imagined. In true connection with this season, love – true love, is the greatest gift we could ever receive or give.

Prayer: “God help us to honor the heart of what matters. God help us to live your compassion and mercy deeper than the sweaters we wear. God help us have courage in fearful days. God help us to love you and others all our precious days.”

October happenings and Advent opportunities

On October 31, 2019, Tree of Life hosted its 2nd Annual Trunk or Treat. We had about 175 adults and children attend the event in marvelous costumes. The guests received Halloween candy, enjoyed festive spooky music and were given a roomful of children's books to choose from and take home to keep. We distributed over 200 children's books over the two-hour event. Thank you to all the volunteers and donations for this youth and family event.

HOSPITALIZATIONS

The church office no longer receives calls from the hospital when a member is hospitalized. It would be appreciated if someone from the family would call the church office when a hospitalization occurs. In addition to calls no longer being made to the office by hospital volunteers, the computer used by the clergy at the hospital to locate hospitalized members has been removed. Thank you for your assistance. In case of hospital emergency, please contact Pastor Eastman at 716 969-3950.

Choir rehearsals are on Wednesdays at 7:00 Sept—mid-May
