The Directors

Mrs. Shawn Morton

Shawn Morton is beginning her fourteenth year as an orchestra teacher here in Gwinnett County. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Music in Music Education and a minor in viola performance. While attending UGA, Mrs. Morton was a member of the Honors program and was president of the UGA chapter of the American String Teachers Association. Mrs. Morton also holds a Masters of Business Administration from Shorter College. Mrs. Morton conducts the Gwinnett County Kendall Youth Orchestra, and she has worked as a sectional coach with the Gwinnett County Youth Symphony, and she has served as a clinician for local school orchestras, the Spivey Hall Chamber Orchestra Workshop, The Gwinnett County Violapalooza Festival, The Gwinnett County Tapestry Workshop, the UGA Summer Music Camp and various other workshops and clinics. Mrs. Morton also maintains a private studio. Her students have been named as members of Kendall Youth Orchestra, Gwinnett County Youth Symphony, Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestra, Emory Youth Symphony Orchestra, and the Georgia All-State Orchestra. In addition, Mrs. Morton's orchestras have performed at the 2007 Midwest Clinic, 2009 American String Teachers Association Conference and the 2011 Georgia Music Educators Association In-service Conference, 2013 National Band and Orchestra Festival at Lincoln Center, and the 2014 Midwest Clinic. Mrs. Morton is a member of the American String Teachers Association, Georgia Music Educators Association, Professional Association of Georgia Educators, and Sigma Beta Delta. She resides in Buford with her husband Dale, son Hudson and dogs Harmony and Mozart.

Dr. Peter Lemonds

Dr. Peter Lemonds is currently Co-Director of Orchestras at Duluth High School where has served as chairman of the Fine Arts Department. In addition, has served as the Georgia Music Educator's District 13 Orchestra chairman and is currently high school lead teacher for Orchestra programs in the Gwinnett County Public Schools. He has had a varied career as a performing cellist, conductor, and educator, performing numerous concerts as a soloist and chamber musician in the United States, England, France, Italy, Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Mexico, and Korea. He was an assistant professor of music at the University of Southern Mississippi, and served on the faculty of the Sewanee Summer Music Center. He has directed the orchestra program for the Georgia Governor's Honors Program and has taught at the Paideia School (as founder and director of the orchestra program), the Lovett School, Wheeler High School, East Cobb Middle School, North Gwinnett High School, and Duluth Middle School. He was a finalist in the Dealy Awards Competition and a winner of the Alpha Delta Kappa International Cello Competition. Dr. Lemonds has performed with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and the Atlanta Opera, and has appeared with numerous guest artists, including Sarah Brightman, Smokey Robinson, Rod Stewart, Al Jarreau, Bob Hope, Bernadette Peters, Page and Plant of Led Zeppelin, and Dionne Warwick. He has recorded "Georgia on My Mind" with Ray Charles for Georgia Public Television. He holds a Master of Music degree from Louisiana State University and Bachelor of Arts from the University of the South, Sewanee. He received a Ford Foundation Fellowship for doctoral study at the Conservatory of Music at the University of Missouri, where he completed his dissertation, The Carl Flesch Violin Scale System: An Edition for Cello, and was awarded the Doctor of Musical Arts degree. Dr. Lemonds is a member of the Georgia Music Educators Association, American String Teachers Association, American Federation of Musicians, National School Orchestra Association, and Georgia Association of Educators. His orchestras have been selected three times to perform at the Georgia Music Educators Convention in Savannah, Georgia, and twice at the National Orchestra Festival.

A Special Thanks from the Duluth Strings Orchestra Alliance

The DSOA Board would like to thank the many volunteers that have supported our fundraisers, events, and most importantly, our students. Without you, DSOA could not successfully support the DHS Orchestra program. Please consider donating a little of your time to work with us so that we may continue to make a difference in this program through parent involvement and participation.

Thanks to Dr. Lemonds and Mrs. Morton for their hard work and dedication to our students. Their energy, determination and dedication to the DHS Orchestra program ensures that our program remains one of the top orchestra programs in Gwinnett County, in the state of Georgia, and on a national level.

And finally, thanks to all of the students for their hard work, for coming together to make beautiful music, and for entertaining us all.

DFAL offers college scholarships to high school seniors that are majoring in fine arts.

DFAL awarded over $30,000 in scholarships for the arts in recent years.
