By unanimous vote, members of Dorval's City Council approved a proposal presented by Dr. Peter Pare, Chairman of the Dorval Catholic School 'Commission, whereby the City and the Commission would think of ourselves as conservatives, liberals, or CCF-new democrats, and the more we realize that first and above all we are Canadians. There will, of course, be party differences in the days ahead on matters of method and detail, and each party will naturally strive for public approval of its policy, but undermeath all this superficial dis-agreement there lies a tremendous unity of pride and loyalty to our country. When the chips are really down all political parties close ranks as Canadians in defence against a common enemy.

These are parlous times indeed These are parlous times indeed, and a certain new trend in mer-chanditing does nothing but bear out the axiom that bad news travels fastest of all. In relation to the bad news, how-ever, Dorval and the lakeshore could be said to be sitting a shade prettler than their metropolitan contemporaries. Civil Defence, particularly in Dorval, has been a prime endeavor for some years now. Where Montreal refused to do any-the a bout remarked the lake thing about preparedness, the Lake-shore went to work with a will, and there's nothing particularly smug about saying that the area bounded by L ke St. Louis is, by and large, educated to the rudiments of survival.

I do not believe there will be war but it's comforting to feel that some Canadians -- oddly enough, mainly concentrated in the smaller communities -- have taken train-ing in the vital business of Civil Defence and are continuing that training.

But let's look at Khruschev's Folly, as it relates to the par-ticular geographical location of the Lakeshore.

the Lakeshore. We are primarily concerned at the moment with fallout - the in-tidious, strength-sapping destroy-er that does its work slowly and with devlish potency. According to Ed Hadley, Wash-ington correspondent for THE MONTREAL STAR, Canada will indeed bearthe full brunt of radio-active damage in this bemisphere.

indeed bear the full brunt of radio-active damage in this hemisphere. The Soviet blasts, based on a course of west-to-east winds, will scatter fall-out first on the Pacific Coast and then spread - with lesser in-tensity, of course - across the country to the Atlantic with the main load of fall-out landing be-tween the SOth and 70th parallels. The SOth Parallel runs just north of V ncouver, just south of Calgary and Regina, almost through Winnipeg and eastward south of James Bay but well north of Ottawa and Montreal.

In this event, the Lakeshore gets off more or less scot-free, for the forecast main course of the fall-out would finally lead out into the North Atlantic across Labrador and Beffin lead Baffin Island. * * *

FUEL OIL DISTRIBUTION PLANT IN KIRKLAND

A small fuel oil bulk plant in-corporating a most modern design is being built in the Town of Kirkland, near Pointe Claire, by BP Canada Limited. When completed, the $20, 000 installation will supply furnace oil for distribution to residents of the Lakeshore by a large independent re-

Lakeshore by a rays margin in tailer. In addition, an ultra-modern BP service station is also to be built, adjacent to the plant, to meet the needs of motorists in the area. Both installations will be opened in late September. The bulk plant is fully automatic and will require no staff. To pick up a load, drivers of delivery trucks will merely need a special key. A turn of this key will automatically dispense fuel into a truck and will print a ticket recording the exact amount of the sale. All fuel will be stored under-ground in three 10,000-gal, tanks, and only the laoding ramp will be vitable above ground. Eventually, the plant will be expanded to ac-comodate two truckssimultaneously. The 20,000 gd. ft. lot at 3570 St. Charles Rd., where the bulk plant and service station are being erect-ed, wasformerly occupied by an old gasoline attation and shed, both of which have been cleared by the ABC Demolltion Company of Pointe Claire. Contractor for the project is Clifford Munn, Inc., of the Town of Mount Royal.

Reolly, dear bay, you must jain me on my shapping tau today. Yau'll be jolly well astounded.

Capitall Lady Pamela, I'll call the coach and fours.

Nonsense, Your Grace, Let's walk. There's so much to see in the Dorval shops, one shauld take one's time.
