

Yorktown Rotary Club

Recent Events

Long time member Bob Edwards described his 26 year Marine Corps career, his 11 years at the shipyard, and growing up in Newport News. His Marine humor was enjoyable!

In re-giving his classification talk long time member Bill Riter emphasized how Rotary connected him and his family to the community as he moved to different job locations during his career in Building Code Enforcement

Member Michelle Pollock described her life's work to date from owning a tax preparation agency, living in many different places, to her current work in real estate

Cliff Fleet, CEO of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, provided an informative and interesting overview of how Colonial Williamsburg is weathering the storms of COVID19, racial unrest and other challenges
