

Erin Younggren

Erin Younggren is the daughter of Dan and Rose Younggren, and the late Michele Younggren. She is homeschooled and will be a senior this coming school year. Erin enjoys rodeo events including bull riding and is excited to compete this year again, in the Marquette rodeo. She also enjoys taking part in the community and attending Next Generation meetings through the Chamber of Commerce. In Erin's spare time she enjoys spending time and caring for her elderly grandfather, Francis Younggren. She is one of 8 kids and can be found helping her father run his logging business or tending the family farm. Erin currently runs her own daycare and enjoys traveling downstate for leadership conferences and visiting family. After she graduates Erin plans on attending cosmetology school in Traverse City to help pursue her career in special effects makeup. Erin is sponsored by the Hardwood Steakhouse in Covington, Michigan.
