

A LITTLE BOY IN CHURCH

A little boy in church today is a busy little lad.
He often tries the patience of his mother and his dad.
He fumbles in his pockets; he needs some gum to chew.
He whispers something funny; he's underneath the pew.
He draws a picture of a cat; it looks more like a bird.
The preacher, preaches on and on; he hasn't heard a word.
But try one's patience he will, he's lovable and dear.
He can't sit still for very long, But aren't we glad he's here!

The above may sound really familiar to many of us. And I know that sometimes parents feel as if they are hindering others in worship. Just remember that this is the best place to train our children to worship God. You sure cannot train them outside the assembly. So just keep up the good work and train them in the way they should go (Pro. 22:6). You would be surprised at what they are learning from you.
