

COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM OF PREVENTION OF CRIME ON YOUNG PEOPLE “HEY YOU, BE THE CHANGE DEPENDS OF YOU” (MORELOS, MÉXICO)

1. Introduction and objectives:

In this year 2014, marks the twentieth anniversary of the International Year of the Family, on this occasion, it is appropriate to promote the awareness and a better understanding of social processes, economic and demographic that affect this important nucleus of society.

This celebration gives us the opportunity to make emphasis on the role of the families have in development; assess the recent trends in the creation of public policies on the topic and share good practices; analyze the major challenges faced by families throughout the world; and to develop recommendations.

We present the following program as an example of good practice at the local level: COMPREHENSIVE PROGRAM OF PREVENTION OF CRIME ON YOUNG PEOPLE “HEY YOU, BE THE CHANGE DEPENDS OF YOU” This program was developed in the civil society assembly and the SECURITY COUNCIL CITIZEN OF MORELOS, with the collaboration of the Government of the state of Morelos, educational institutions, public and private, and non-governmental organizations.

The criminal phenomenon, outgrown to the authorities and the social structure; demonstrating a social breakdown, apathy and confusion in society, generating a social distancing, the result: violence present in our society.

Among the main activities of the program, is the recreational camp, which focuses on restoring the values, whose purpose is to strengthen the physical conditions, mental, emotional and spiritual of adolescents, with a program to follow 24 hours, at no cost and with a capacity to accommodate up to 600 people.

2. Summary of results:

Duration of the program: 2012

Promoter: Security Council Citizen of Morelos, in collaboration with the federal government, state and municipal.

Entities participating in the program: Public and private educational institutions and non-governmental organizations.

Annual Value of investment: $3,000,000.00

Web: <http://consejociudadanodeseguridadmorelos.org/>

The Program offers the following activities: recreational camp, a school for parents, by activating the sport and culture, generation of occupation largely attributable, discussion forums, free public spaces, video contest (vine) through the social networks and a young Line.

3. Contact person

Lisbeth Hernández Lecona

Currently: Senator of the Republic, a member of the LXII and LXIII Legislatures, Secretary of the Commission on the Family and Human Development of the Mexican Senate.

E-mail to contact: lisbeth.hernandez@senado.gob.mx

Contact Phone: (55) 5345 3224

Leticia Salgado Peña

Currently: Counselor and Coordinator of the Integrated Project for the Prevention of Crime called "Hey you, be the change depends of you," vicepresident of the Red Cross in the area South West of the State of Morelos, President of the Association of Parents of the same area and Project Director of the Rotary Club Gardens of Cuernavaca, highlighting their participation in the Morelense society for his work focused on the youth.

E-mail to contact: letysacha2010@hotmail.com

Contact Phones: (777) 5 10 14 00 y 1 81 73 97

