

The THIRTY-NINER

A MESSAGE FROM THE EXALTED RULER

Greetings to all Elk members and families. As the Elks year comes to an end as well as my term as Exalted ruler, during which this past year our Lodge has seen an increase in membership, many cosmetic changes with painted areas of the Lodge and better lighting.

I thank all who have made these things possible. I hope that you will continue to support the incoming Lodge officers and volunteer (not the same twenty people) and continue to make this the best Elks Lodge in Nebraska!

This being my last message as Exalted ruler, here are a few things we as Elks should think about:

“Life’s most persistent and urgent question is, ‘What are you doing for others?’” - Martin Luther King, Jr.

“A thousand words will not leave so deep an impression as one deed.” – Henrik Ibsen

Fraternally Yours,

Gerald K. Waldow

Exalted Ruler
