DON AMERO Tuesday, February 25, 2020 7:30 PM

An evening with Don Amero is a new take on the classic travelling troubadour. With a combination of original music and classic covers like Blue Rodeo's "Try", it falls somewhere between a family friendly stand up comedy show and an intimate concert.

Between the witty banter, laughs, heartfelt music and inspiring stories, it is an experience for the whole family. Don believes that music is medicine and reaches a depth of the soul that no prescription can offer. We've all felt the power of a melody, lyric or song - it has an almost supernatural ability to move us on an emotional level. In his performance Don takes the listener on an emotional journey - leaving the audience encouraged and inspired to take better care of themselves and others. From the stage, he shares the joys and pitfalls of being a husband, father and musician in today's world.

With a heavy dose of humour, he connects with an easy and effortless charm as he shares his real life stories and songs with his audience.

is top-rate, especially Cape Breton-er Lisa MacIsaac's native and familial skill on the fiddle and all stringed things, but the harmony blend between the two is arresting" - CBC
