CONTRIBUTION and EXPECTATIONS

Considering the educational, professional development objective of the partnership, what topics would be of interest to you during your membership?

Considering the problem solving/brainstorming objective of the partnership, what types of issues or challenges would you like to have the group address during your membership?

Can you identify specific areas of contribution, areas of expertise, past experiences, or other benefits that you envision being able to share with other members?

CONFIDENTIALITY

Members of HR Alternatives' Executive Forums will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement such as the one below.

The term "confidential" or "proprietary information" refers to any and all confidential and proprietary information of the companies represented by the forum members, including but not limited to financial information, business plans, expansion plans or proposals, strategic plans, bids, pricing and marketing information, technical or scientific information, research and development information, technological information, personnel data, labor or employee relations information, customer or client information, advertisers, suppliers, customer sales analyses, or any documents or materials pertaining to those businesses.

You acknowledge that in the course of your membership, you may gain access to and may gain possession of confidential or proprietary information of other members. All conversations that take place during our sessions are confidential unless otherwise agreed by all members. You agree to keep all confidential or proprietary information strictly confidential and not to use such information for any purpose or disclose such information to any person or entity during the course of your membership, or at any time after your membership ends, except as expressly authorized by and for the benefit of the providing member.

Membership is annual from September 1 through May 31.
