

Don was born in 1940 in Ottawa, Kansas, and graduated from high school in Brawley, California in 1959. He spent three years in the US Army and went to tech school for auto mechanics and worked at that profession for seven years.

Don subsequently went into the transportation business, driving a truck and subsequently retiring in 1997 and moved to Lewiston, Idaho.

Don has been a member of the Board at The Valley Community Center for over 10 years several years and has volunteered to help pick up bread for distribution to seniors at the Center for several years. Don also has helped construct and install new signage at the Center and has volunteered at the Center's semi-annual indoor yard, craft and bake sales.

Don has also helped the Center set up phone systems and helped with the purchase of a new copier.
