Lockport resident Andrew Kescelica, center, models his handmade red pine furniture at the 11th annual Chicago Home Show Sunday at the Vaughan Athletic Center in Aurora. Kescelica builds chairs, rockers, gliders, tables and benches at his Black Hills Adirondack shop in Loda, near Champaign. The free home show, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, featured product and service demonstrations with drawings for an Echo Dot, Cutco Cutlery or a mold inspection.
