Mitch and Gina's Story

Mitch & Gina Dissinger have always had a passion for food and hospitality. With Gina's gift for welcoming people and Mitch's love for food they decided that whenever the opportunity knocked they would take a chance on their dream. This finally happened in 2006, when they bought an ice cream truck that we all know as "Lickity Split." The Dissingers thought this would be a small summer job, but word spread fast, and they decided if they wanted to keep following their dreams, they'd need a second truck. A year later, they took the plunge and bought a large tool truck that they transformed into the second Lickity Split truck. Not only could they serve hand-dipped ice cream in two trucks now, but they also weren't busy just in the summers. The busyness extended to most of the spring and fall for parties, fairs, and more. Five years into having an ice cream business, God had a plan for them and they knew it was time. In the summer of 2010, Lickity Split became a restaurant and Mitch and Gina's dream finally became a reality. The Dissingers and their staff wish to thank you for coming along on this journey with them and trust that all your experiences have been sweet!

We are proud to offer our delicious food to go. Consider us for catering your next office meeting, party, and celebration, or schedule us to bring our ice cream truck to your next event! 717-354-4YUM
