

Ervin Beryl "Scook" King

#110

Services for Mr. Ervin Beryl King, 67, of Oil City were held at 2 p.m. Friday, April 21, 1989, at McGuire Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Douglas Milliron, pastor of United Methodist Church of Oil City, officiating. Burial followed at Lakeview Memorial Gardens.

Mr. King was born Dec. 12, 1921 in Oil City and was a pipefitter. He was a member of the Mooringsport Masonic Lodge, the Plumbers Union Local 1444 San Leandro, Calif., a veteran of World War II and a member of the United Methodist Church of Oil City. Mr. King died Wednesday, April 19, 1989, at Schumpert Medical Center in Shreveport after a brief illness.

Survivors include his wife, Elise King of Oil City; one son, Donald King of Oil City; two daughters, Vickie Niederhofer of Oil City and Linda Fedick of Tempee, Ariz.; one brother, Harold E. King of Taylor, Ark.; four grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Pallbearers were Meril Pinckard, Pat Lewis, W.C. "Dub" Allen, Cleo Norris, Russel Chisum Jr. and Hap McCord.

Honorary pallbearers were Matt Isles, Jim Morgan and Jimmie Law.

110 SC 83