Collection of Humanities Iowa

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Locate a Telepoem listing in the Telepoem Book. (They are categorized by poet's last name and topic.)
2. Pick up the hand-set. Listen for dial tone.
3. Dial ALL of the numbers exactly as listed—including the area code. (DO NOT add "1" for long-distance.)
4. To dial, put fingertip in the corresponding number hole in the rotary phone dial.
5. Rotate finger and dialing plate clockwise—all the way to the stopping bar.
6. Release finger. Let plate return to starting position.
7. Hang up the phone when done.

This phone is NOT WIRED for making outside calls.
Emergency calls are not possible on this telephone.

This phone provides free access to poetry recordings. Each listing has a running time in parentheses followed by the Telepoem dialing number.

Online PDF directories for this and other Telepoem Booths are available at telepoembooth.com/directories.

Please be mindful of other users: if there is a queue, limit yourself to one poetry call.

THANK YOU!

The Telepoem Booth project is the brainchild of artist and writer Elizabeth Hellstern, and is co-created with the help of hundreds of community members.

Special thanks to the Telepoem Booth Team: fabricator Owen William Fritts (solidcore.tv), computer programmer David Earl Smith.

Much gratitude to our sponsor, Humanities Iowa.
