

Teresa Malone

Teresa has been dancing & tumbling since the age of 3 with numerous years of performing and teaching experience. Along with being the co-owner of The Next Step, Teresa is an active member of Dance Masters of America. She was a member of the Southern Council of Dance Masters of South Carolina, Chapter #44 for 11 years where she was a nationally certified examiner with DMA for tumbling and jazz. Recently she transferred her membership to Carolina Dance Masters Chapter #15 to be closer to home.

Teresa instructs all phases of dance and tumbling from the youngest beginner to the most advanced. She is dedicated to teaching each student whether in a recreational or competitive class. Her students have won numerous overall awards at the regional level including several students that were chosen KAR KIDS. Teresa's mini jazz group currently is placing in the Top 10 overalls at each competition while taking home many judges awards. Her youth Pom competition teams have consistently won both in regional and national competitions. Teresa believes in the true spirit of giving back and is involved in many charitable causes and organizations, such as American Cancer Society, Breast Care Champions at CMC-NE Hospital, AVON Walk for Breast Cancer and the Susan G. Komen Race for a Cure. Teresa resides in Concord, NC with her husband, Bill and son, Sidney, who is a dancer too.
