Hi Ian -- Thank you for the offer. Sorry I am so late checking this email. FYI - For quickest reach pls call-- no smart phone. Who else will be on? How long for me, or is it several of us for the hour (I believe it is)?

Do you know who was pressuring Alex?

Are you still working with him (your business, just curious since you emailed me, which is fine of course ...)? I haven't been to the Market so not seen him, if he did go there ...

Hi Ian,

Glad to make it out of this storm unscathed ... I assume your family did as well -- what a monster! Here is a more recent summary of this hell, also sent to law enforcement (for what good, don't know?) and FIU as you'll see (and some others).

It is a brief overview along with more recent horror ... I can send you the 40 pages if you want -- that is far worse, many details of suspicious deaths, names, dates, etc... (some of it, not most of it).

This is only 7 pages (compared to the 40 I mention on my site), and I am sure you will keep your eyes glued, I think so anyway ... Horrid. Hope all is ok. Let me know of any questions ... I would like to know who has been communicating with Alex (intimidating him in these regards), if you don't mind? Some horrible people out there ... really a sad time for America. Still trying for an attorney -- if you know of anyone. It's not the 'usual' case, I get that!

Thanks again, Judy
