Week 11 News and Notes!

For those of you that are new, in this section we'll recap what happened last week specifically, the misleading finals, the key injuries, the bad beats and the line moves. We'll include most of these recaps here, therefore you don't have to waste time reading about them in my game-by-game write-ups for the upcoming week. Without further adieu, here's a run down of what happened last week in the world of CFB.

Week 11 Trends Favorites-Dogs

Straight Up 52-11
ATS 35-28

Straight Up 42-21
ATS 21-32

Over-Under 27-36

Home-Away

42-21

21-32

Totals (O/U)

27-36

Largest Favorites to Cover:

Utah St (-31) vs San Jose St, 62-24
Stanford (-24) vs Oregon St, 48-17
Alabama (-22) vs Mississippi St, 24-0
Syracuse (-20.5) vs Louisville, 54-23
Appalachian St (-19.5) at Texas St, 38-7

Biggest Money line Upsets:

UNLV +1300 won at San Diego St, 27-24
Wake Forest +800 won at NC State, 27-23
Old Dominion +450 won vs North Texas, 34-31
Northwestern +350 won at Iowa, 14-10
Minnesota +300 won vs Purdue, 41-10

UNLV led by RB Lexington Thomas pulled off one of the biggest upsets of the season so far winning 27-24 at San Diego St last Saturday. The Rebels were 24-point underdogs and were as high as +1300 on the money line.

ATS Notables

Utah St and Washington St are both 9-1 ATS this season while UAB, Buffalo and Fresno St are 8-2 ATS. On the other side, Louisville is 1-9 ATS this year (another reason they fired head coach Bobby Petrino on Sunday) while Wisconsin, Washington, TCU and New Mexico St are all 2-8 ATS.

Utah St and Oklahoma have seen the OVER go 8-1-1 in their games this year. The OVER is 8-2 in New Mexico games and 7-2 in North Carolina games. Meanwhile the UNDER is now 10-0 in North Texas games and 8-1 in Mississippi St games.

Misleading Finals

While the final score of Virginia 45-24 was close to the 24-point line in the Liberty/Virginia game, the stats were pretty close. UVA only had a 389-354 yard edge. Liberty had 3 TO's that set up UVA for 14 points. The also Flames missed a FG and also allowed a 90-yard kick return TD.

While Iowa St beat Baylor 28-14, do note that Baylor had 25-21 first down and 505-355 yard edges. Baylor missed two short FG's and were also stopped on downs at the Iowa St 12-yard and 15-yard lines on their final two possessions.

Indiana beat Maryland 34-32 which was right near the spread. However, Maryland had 27-18 first down and 542-374 yard edges including 353-131 on the ground. The Terps had 4 TO's that led to 17 points for the Hoosiers. Maryland trailed 31-15 in the middle of the 3Q but rallied to take a 32-31 lead with under 5 minutes left.

Cal upset USC 15-14 but USC had 18-11 first down and 277-207 yard edges. USC led 14-0 late 2Q and were going in for another score but fumbled in the Cal red zone. The Bears outscored the Trojans 15-0 in the second half and snapped a 14-game losing streak to USC.

Major Injuries

- Akron QB Kato Nelson (leg) is ? for this week's game vs Bowling Green.
- Alabama QB Tua Tagovailoa (quad) has been upgraded to probable for this week's game vs The Citadel.
- Boston College QB Anthony Brown (arm) is ? for this week's game vs Florida St.
- Georgia St QB Dan Ellington (concussion) is ? for this week's game vs App St.
- Illinois RB Reggie Corbin (leg) is ? for this week's game vs Iowa.
- Iowa St RB David Montgomery (suspension) is out for the first half of this week's game vs Texas.
- Maryland QB Kasim Hill (leg) is out indefinitely. Tyrell Pigrome will most likely be the starter for this week's game vs Ohio St.
- Notre Dame QB Ian Book (ribs) missed last week's game vs Florida St but is probable for this week's game vs Syracuse.
- South Alabama QB Evan Orth (shoulder) is ? for this week's game vs UL-Lafayette.
- South Florida QB Blake Barnett (shoulder) missed last week's game vs Cincinnati and is questionable for this week's game vs Temple.
- Texas Tech QB Alan Bowman (lung) is doubtful for this week's game vs Kansas St.
- UAB QB AJ Erdely (shoulder) has missed the last couple of games and is questionable for this week's game at Texas A&M.
- UNLV QB Armani Rogers (foot) is questionable for this week's game vs Hawaii.
- Utah RB Zack Moss (ankle) got hurt in practice last week and is out for the season.
- Wisconsin QB Alex Hornibrook (concussion) missed last week's game vs Penn St and is doubtful for this week's game at Purdue.

Bad Beats

It's funny how the gambling gods work. Last week, if you bet Texas A&M, you were dealt a tough beat as they allowed a couple of late TD's to Auburn and failed to cover the closing line by a 0.5-point. This week, A&M was a 13.5-point favorite over Ole Miss but the game was tied at 21-21 entering the 4Q. A&M outscored the Rebels 17-3 in the 4Q and the only time all game. A&M was covering came after a 46-yard TD run with under 2 minutes left. Ole Miss got down to the A&M 22-yard line late in the game but were stopped on downs and A&M got the 0.5-point cover.

LSU was a 13.5-point favorite at Arkansas. The Tigers led 24-3 entering the 4Q but Arkansas got a couple of TD's to make it 24-17. However, LSU was driving late for the front door cover but their RB Nick Brossette fell down not once, but twice going in for a TD so the Tigers could run out the clock.

Recapping Last Week's Best Bets

Last week we had another awesome week going 7-1! That means we have been at least 4-4 on our best bets every single week for the last 10 weeks! In the colleges, we swept the board going 5-0! Northern Illinois started the week with a dominant win over Toledo last Wednesday. On Saturday, we got another couple of easy winners with Pittsburgh blowing Virginia Tech and Tennessee winning outright over Kentucky. Meanwhile Texas nearly blew a 17-point lead while Liberty covered all 60 minutes vs Virginia. In the NFL we went 2-1 but our 3★ on Philadelphia on Sunday Night Football went down. Buffalo won outright in blowout fashion and the Seahawks covered nearly the entire game but it did get interesting late in the fourth quarter. Always remember gambling is a marathon, not a sprint.

Games in Rotation Order

Wednesday, November 14th

OHIO 33 Buffalo 31. Buffalo comes in off a blowout win over Kent St last week. Buffalo dominated with 22-12 first down and 478-183 yard edges including 358-100 on the ground and led 48-0 entering the 4Q. The Bulls' 9 wins are the most in their FBS history, dating to 1999. Meanwhile the Bobcats come in off a loss at Miami, OH. The game was pretty even as Ohio had a 362-357 yard edge but Miami actually led 28-7 at halftime. The early money has come in on the Bobcats.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 27 Miami, OH 23. Miami kept their bowl hopes alive with a 30-28 win over Ohio last week as the Red Hawks nearly blew a 28-7 halftime lead. Meanwhile, we easily cashed a 3★ on these pages backing Northern Illinois last week in their 38-15 win over Toledo last week. Thanks to Ball St's upset win over Western Michigan last night, NIU has locked up the MAC West division now and this game doesn't have as much meaning for them. We now lean with Miami.

Thursday, November 15th

Toledo 36 KENT ST 24. Last week we easily cashed going against the Rockets in their 38-15 loss at Northern Illinois. It was an interesting box score as Toledo had 24-20 first down and 431-427 yard edges but were +2 TO's and got out-rushed 296-167. Meanwhile, Kent St got "bull" dozed by Buffalo last week. Toledo needs this for bowl eligibility but we don't see too much value here. Pass.

HOUSTON 36 Tulane 28. The Cougars come in fresh off back-to-back losses. Last week they fell by 10 at home to Temple but the game was pretty even as Temple had a 537-527 yard edge. However, Houston had 3 key TO's. Houston QB D'Eriq King threw for 322 yards and 5 TD's and also added 125 rushing yards and a TD in the loss. Meanwhile, Tulane has won three in a row for first time since 2013. Last week Tulane's pass attack was far more efficient gaining 372 yards on 28 pass attempts while ECU had 360 yards on 68 pass attempts. We lean with Tulane.

NORTH TEXAS 31 Florida Atlantic 30. FAU comes in off back-to-back blowout wins needing one more to get to bowl eligibility. FAU dominated WKU last week with 28-21 first down and 576-351 yard edges including 315-123 on the ground. Meanwhile, what is North Texas' state of mind? Last week North Texas actually led ODU 28-0 in the 2Q and at that point had a win probability of 99.7% according to ESPN. However, Old Dominion got a TD with :15 left for the comeback win! Totals' players note the UNDER is a perfect 10-0 in North Texas games this year. Slight lean on the visitor.

Friday, November 16th

Memphis 40 SMU 34. SMU won a shoot-out vs UConn last week. UConn had a 34-24 first down edge but SMU was more explosive with a 8.6-6.6 yards per play advantage. Meanwhile, Sunday Night Owl customers have cashed in back-to-back weeks on Memphis. Last week the Tigers dominated Tulsa with 27-16 first down and 499-252 yard edges including 297-112 on the ground. Memphis led 27-0 at halftime and Tulsa got a TD with :11 left in garbage time. Memphis RB Henderson, the nation's 2nd leading rusher, had 166 yards. However, we like the home dog here who needs just one more win for bowl eligibility.

Boise St 40 NEW MEXICO 20. Boise St is 38-17-1 ATS as a road favorite the last 11 years. The Broncos are coming off a big win as a rare home underdog to Fresno St last week. The Broncos rallied from 17-3 3Q deficit to score the game's final 21 points as they beat a ranked team for the first time in November in program history. Boise QB Rypien said, "Being an underdog on the blue, that's never a good feeling, especially since we haven't been in a long time. And some guys in the locker room took that kind of personally." Meanwhile, New Mexico was out-classed by Air Force who had 27-14 first down and 624-305 yard edges including 479-119 on the ground. Not sure we want to lay this kind of number on the road though.

Saturday, November 17th

MICHIGAN 40 Indiana 13. Michigan has won 22 straight series meetings vs Indiana but are only 12-9-1 ATS. We feel both teams have questionable motivation for this game as both have big rivalry games on deck. Last week, the Wolverines won their 9th straight game crushing Rutgers as Michigan had 24-11 first down and 453-252 yard edges. Michigan QB Patterson was 18 of 27 for 260 yards and had 3 TD's. Meanwhile, Indiana beat Maryland 34-32. However, Maryland had 27-18 first down and 542-374 yard edges including 353-131 on the ground. The Terps had 4 TO's that led to 17 points for the Hoosiers. While some think Harbaugh is a "bully" and likes to pound on teams, Michigan is just 6-10 ATS as a 21-point or more favorite since he took over. We're passing here.

Pittsburgh 32 WAKE FOREST 26. Last week we cashed a 2★ on these pages on Pitt as they crushed Virginia Tech. VT actually had a 28-17 first down edge but Pitt was the far more explosive team with a 654-432 yard edge and an incredible 13.9-5.0 yards per play advantage. That 13.9 yards per play for Pitt is the largest in CFB since at least 2005! Pitt's 2-headed monster at RB saw Qadree Ollison run for 235 yards and 3 TD's and Darrin Hall run for 186 yards and a TD. Meanwhile, Wake pulled the big upset as 18.5-point underdogs at NC State last week. Wake actually trailed 23-13 with under 10 minutes left but NC State was stopped on downs inside WF's 40-yard line twice and the Demon Deacons got a 32-yard TD pass with :30 left. Jamie Newman in his first career start was 22 of 33 for 297 yards and 3 TD's (0 INT's) for Wake. The Demon Deacons are usually one of the fastest-playing teams in the country, averaging more than 85 plays per game. But the quarterback change and the lack of depth on defense forced Clawson to slow things down. They ran only 71 plays in this one. Does that create some value on the UNDER here?

HOME TEAM IN CAPS

Iowa 37 ILLINOIS 21. The Hawkeyes come in reeling off 3 straight losses. Last week, they fell at home to Northwestern as 10-point home favorites. The game was pretty even. Iowa had a 333-306 yard edge but Northwestern had a 184-64 rush yard edge. Meanwhile, Illinois fell at Nebraska. The Illini had a 25-22 first down edge but Nebraska had a 606-509 yard edge. Illinois had 5 TO's and The Cornhuskers converted four of the Illini's five turnovers into 24 points. Illinois QB AJ Bush ran for 187 yards and 3 TD's. Iowa is on a 17-0 SU/15-1-1 ATS run as a road favorite but this line is a little steep for us.

PURDUE 27 Wisconsin 24. Last week Wisconsin couldn't overcome 4 TO's (-2). Wisconsin QB Jack Coan was just 9 of 20 for 60 yards and 2 INT's but RB Taylor had 185 rushing yards. Meanwhile, The Gophers shockingly dominated Purdue with 22-14 first down and 415-233 yard edges including 265-88 on the ground. Purdue got most of their yards (122) on their final 2 drives of the game. Slight lean on the visitors here as Wisconsin is on a 12-0 SU/9-3 ATS run vs Purdue but this week the Badgers find themselves underdogs at the Boilers.

GEORGIA TECH 30 Virginia 24. The home team is on a 8-0 ATS run in the series. After an 0-4 ATS start to the season, the Ramblin' Wreck have won and covered 5 of their last 6 games. Last week their game vs Miami, FL was pretty even as GT had a 304-299 yard edge but the Canes were done in by 3 TO's. After Miami scored to cut it to 27-21, GT was able to run out the final 6:43. Meanwhile, we cashed a 2★ fading Virginia last week. While the final score of 45-24 was close to the 24-point line in the game, the stats were pretty close. UVA only had a 389-354 yard edge. Liberty had 3 TO's that set up UVA for 14 points. We're passing here.

3★ MINNESOTA 27 Northwestern 23. Here we have one team that has everything to play for in Minnesota who needs a 6th win to qualify for a bowl. On the other side, we have one team that has nothing to play for in Northwestern who clinched the Big Ten West for the first time ever last week! Keep in mind, Minnesota is youngest team in country: 51% of their roster is freshman. So it should come as no surprise Minnesota is much better at home (+15 ppg and +89 ypg) than away from home (-23 ppg and -168 ypg). Minnesota made a change at DC last week and the results were great. The Gophers entered the game allowing 43 points and 508 yards per game, but held Purdue to 233 total yards and 10 points. Head coach PJ Fleck called his defense: Sound, simple and fast! We expect more of the same here. Finally, the underdog in Northwestern games is on a 10-0-1 ATS run!

CLEMSON 45 Duke 17. You are starting to pay a premium on Clemson. The Tigers have now covered 5 straight games! Last week Clemson dominated BC with 19-8 first down and 424-113 yard edges. Meanwhile, Duke had a 629-536 yard edge and won over North Carolina despite being -3 in TO's. Duke QB Daniel Jones had himself a game as he was 31 of 54 for 361 yards and 3 TD's while also adding 186 rushing yards. It was a program-record 547 total yards. Matchup edge goes to Clemson's rush offense averaging 6.7 yards per carry vs a Duke rush defense that has allowed 8.2 yards per carry the last 3 games. Pass on side, lean on OVER.

Penn St 41 RUTGERS 13. Penn St is on a 11-0 SU/7-3-1 ATS run in the series. The Nittany Lions are coming off a big bounce back win over Wisconsin last week. Penn St had 23-12 first down and 343-269 yard edges. Meanwhile, Rutgers was run over by Michigan 42-7. More of the same here as we lean OVER.

Texas Tech 30 KANSAS ST 27. Last week we cashed a wild one against Texas Tech in their loss to Texas. Texas Tech had 32-28 first down and 595-469 yard edges but were -3 TO's. Tech rallied from a 34-17 4Q deficit to tie before Texas got a 29-yard TD pass with :21 left. Tech QB Duffey had 524 total yards but had 3 TO's all inside Texas' 20-yard line. Duffey will again get the start here. Meanwhile, Kansas St was extremely fortunate not to lose to rival Kansas last week. Kansas had 19-17 first down and 347-301 yard edges but had 2 crucial TO's. Kansas St scored a 21-yard TD with 2:46 left to get the win. Kansas St has won 6 of the last 7 meetings.

EAST CAROLINA 41 Connecticut 27. This is East Carolina's largest favorite role over an FBS team since 2014. Last week the Pirates lost but covered at Tulane. Tulane's pass attack was far more efficient gaining 372 yards on 28 pass attempts while ECU had 360 yards on 68 pass attempts. Meanwhile UConn actually got a cover last week. UConn had a 34-24 first down edge but SMU was more explosive with a 8.6-6.6 yards per play advantage. Uconn QB David Pindell threw for 215 yards and 4 TD's and also added 184 rushing yards and 2 TD's. He became the first Husky quarterback to ever to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Lean on the dog.

TEMPLE 38 South Florida 24. Last week, USF lost at Cincy. The Bearcats had 24-13 first down and 432-313 yard edges including 238-81 on the ground. However, USF led 16-14 at halftime. USF QB Blake Barnett didn't play as Chris Oladokun and Brett Kean combined to go 14 of 32 for 232 yards and 3 TD's. Barnett is ? here. On the other side, Temple's offense is rolling the last couple of weeks. Last week, they got 59 points in an upset over Houston. Temple led throughout as RB Ryouell Armstead had 210 rushing yards and 6 TD's. Don't see much value here.

GEORGIA 51 Massachusetts 13. Last week, Georgia had a 516-274 yard edge including 303-102 on the ground in their win over Auburn. Meanwhile UMass is off a blowout loss to BYU last week. UMass actually led 10-0 early before BYU scored 35 unanswered. This is Georgia's largest favorite role ever over an FBS opponent! The Bulldogs are just 3-8 ATS laying 40 or more in their history. We lean with the large underdog here as UGA is off LSU/UF/UK/Aub and has GT/Bama on deck.

Georgia Southern 30 COASTAL CAROLINA 24. Georgia Southern is trying to get their season back on track after losing back-to-back games. Last week they lost at home to Troy as the Trojans had 24-13 first down and 454-291 yard edges and even out-rushed Georgia Southern 140-101. Meanwhile, Coastal Carolina has been sitting on 5 wins for the last couple of weeks and need one more for bowl eligibility. Last week they were drilled at Arkansas St as the Red Wolves had 23-18 first down and 454-298 yard edges. Slight lean on the home dog here.

CFB VIP Late Phone/Email Service (Includes Every CFB ★-Rated Play): Just $199 Call 1-702-419-0473!

Missouri 30 TENNESSEE 24. Last week we easily cashed on these pages as they pulled the outright upset over Kentucky. Tennessee had a 412-262 yard edge including a 215-77 rush yard edge. Tennessee QB Guarantano has thrown 146 consecutive passes without an interception. The Vols can get to bowl eligibility with a win here. Meanwhile, Missouri got a fortunate win over Vandy last week. The key play saw the Commodores stopped on downs at the Missouri 1-yard early in the 4Q when they were up 28-26. Missouri then went 14 plays, 99 yards for the go-ahead TD. We don't see as much value here as why take Tennessee +6 this week vs Mizzou when you could've taken them +6 last week vs an inferior UK team.

KENTUCKY 30 Middle Tennessee 17. Kentucky was crushed last week by Tennessee as we easily cashed finding them on these pages. Meanwhile, Middle Tennessee won 48-32 at UTEP. MT QB Brent Stockstill had arguably his best game of the season as he was 31 of 40 for 352 yards and 4 TD's. Kentucky is on a 0-11 ATS run as a favorite. Lean on Middle Tennessee especially with such a low total.

Ohio St 36 MARYLAND 23. Ohio St is in a Michigan St/Michigan sandwich so do they really want margin here? Last weekend's 20-point win at MSU was more about field position than anything. OSU's punter put 5 straight punts inside MSU's 6-yard line in the second half and the Bucks got a safety and a defensive TD. Meanwhile, Maryland had 27-18 first down and 542-374 yard edges including 353-131 on the ground but lost to Indiana. The Terps had 4 TO's that led to 17 points for the Hoosiers. Maryland trailed 31-15 in the middle of the 3Q but rallied to take a 32-31 lead with under 5 minutes left. Maryland QB Kasim Hill is out here but backup Pigrome has plenty of experience and played well last week. He's only a 1.5-point downgrade. Slight lean on the Terps.

NC State 38 LOUISVILLE 24. After a blowout loss to Syracuse last Friday, Louisville fired head coach Bobby Petrino on Sunday. The Cardinals were just 6-21 ATS in Petrino's last 27 games including 1-9 ATS this year failing to cover the spread by 15 ppg. On the other side, NC State suffered a big upset loss to Wake Forest last Thursday. NC State actually led 23-13 with under 10 minutes left but NC State was stopped on downs inside WF's 40-yard line twice and the Demon Deacons got a 32-yard TD pass with :30 left. Even though this line looks steep, we're passing.

2★ OVER 59.5. CENTRAL FLORIDA 37 Cincinnati 30. This is the biggest home game in school history for UCF. ESPN College GameDay will be on hand and it is prime-time on ABC. UCF is playing with unbeaten pressure but have handled it well all year. We love the OVER here. Cincy's great defensive numbers (top 7 in scoring and total defense) are masked by a weak slate of offenses. Cincy has played one Top 30 offense this year (Ohio) and they allowed 30 points and 412 yards, both by far season highs as we cashed our 5★ VIP totals play on the OVER. UCF's offense is by far the best offense the Bearcats have faced. Meanwhile, there has been some misleading lower scoring games involving UCF recently. Three games ago, they played ECU with their backup QB. Last week they played an option team in Navy that kept their high-powered offense off the field. Shootout!

AUBURN 47 Liberty 17. Last week we cashed with the Flames. While the final score of Virginia 45-24 was close to the 24-point line, the stats were pretty close. UVA only had a 389-354 yard edge. Liberty had 3 TO's that set up UVA for 14 points. The also Flames missed a FG and also allowed a 90-yard kick return TD. Meanwhile, Auburn is in a UGA/Bama sandwich and the Tigers are on a 2-11-2 ATS run as a 3-TD or more favorite since early 2014. We like OVER.

Florida International 28 CHARLOTTE 21. FIU bounced back from the blowout loss to FAU with a blowout win over UTSA last week. FIU had 21-15 first down and 453-245 yard edges but did benefit from a +4 TO margin. Meanwhile, Charlotte was tied 13-13 early in the 3Q vs Marshall before the Thundering Herd dominated the second half. Slight lean on the road team.

BYU 40 New Mexico St 16. BYU is fresh off a road win over UMass. BYU had 19-15 first down and 388-285 yard edges including 221-102 on the ground. UMass actually led 10-0 early before BYU scored 35 unanswered. Meanwhile, New Mexico St comes in fresh off a bye. The Cougars need another win to get to bowl eligibility but we don't see much value here.

WYOMING 22 Air Force 20. Both teams need to win their final 2 games to get to bowl eligibility. Wyoming did have extra time to prep for the option coming off a bye last week. On the other side, Air Force dominated New Mexico with 27-14 first down and 624-305 yard edges including 479-119 on the ground. Air Force QB Donald Hammond was 5 of 6 for 145 yards and 2 TD's and added 137 rushing yards and a TD. Air Force is on a 10-1-1 ATS run as a road underdog but Wyoming is on a 9-0 ATS run in the series. Pass.

Utah 29 COLORADO 23. Last week Utah played extremely well with a backup QB and RB. QB Jason Shelley was 18 of 31 for 262 yards while RB Armand Shyne ran for 174 yards. The Utes had 24-18 first down and 494-405 yard edges including 232-117 on the ground. Utah led 19-7 at halftime but trailed 25-22 lead mid-way through the 4Q. However, Utah kicked a 24-yard FG with :15 left to get the cover. Meanwhile, Colorado was thumped at home to Washington St. The Cougs had 26-12 first down and 477-297 yard edges. Colorado WR Shenault, who had 11 touchdowns during the Buffs' 5-0 start, was rusty in his return from a right turf toe injury. He caught 10 passes for 102 yards but cost his team dearly with back-to-back drops and a lost fumble. Slight lean on the home team and the OVER.

Utah St 45 COLORADO ST 20. Utah St's offense continues to put up record numbers. Last week, the Aggies had 33-14 first down and 804-400 yard edges including 294-56 on the ground. Utah St QB Jordan Love was 32 of 42 for 491 yards and 5 TD's. They broke a school record for yardage and became just the 17th team in NCAA history to gain at least 800 total yards in a game. The same can't be said for Colorado St who trailed Nevada 49-0 entering the 4Q last week. Utah St is 9-1 ATS this year but you're starting to pay a premium. This is the largest away favorite role for the Aggies in modern point spread history (40 years).

3★ Syracuse (plus the points) † Notre Dame 31 Syracuse 28. @Yankees Stadium in Bronx, NY. Last week ND had a 495-322 yard edge including 365-106 on the ground in their blowout win over Florida St. ND QB Ian Book (probable here) was a late scratch. Meanwhile, Syracuse had 326 rushing yards in a blowout win over Louisville. Syracuse has by far the best offense ND has faced all season. ND could struggle with the Cuse tempo as teams like Michigan, Pitt, Navy and Stanford all trot to the line of scrimmage. Syracuse is great as a dog under emotional head coach Dino Babers. They are on a 9-2 ATS run as a dog including 3-0 ATS this year with an average cover of 20 ppg. Keep in mind, Syracuse is only two plays away from being 10-0 (lost by 4 at Clemson, lost in OT at Pitt).

APPALACHIAN ST 40 Georgia St 13. Last week, Appalachian St had 19-15 first down and 468-218 yard edges including 221-86 on the ground in their 31-point win over Texas St. Appalachian St QB Zac Thomas returned from injury and was 25 of 36 for 247 yards and 2 TD's. On the other side, Georgia St only trailed 16-14 entering the 4Q but ended up losing by 14 to ULL. ULL had a 525-373 yard edge including 355-252 on the ground. With Thomas back in the fold, the Mountaineers are the Sun Belt's best team but this is a steep line.

MARSHALL 34 Utsa 10. Marshall is off a blowout win while UTSA is off another blowout loss. Marshall has been getting money all week. You have to ask yourself, who is better UAB or Marshall? We're guessing you'd answer UAB. So why lay 27-points at home with Marshall when just two weeks ago, UAB was a 21.5-point home favorite over UTSA. We actually lean with UTSA at the current line.

Stanford 23 CALIFORNIA 21. Stanford is on a 8-0 SU/6-2 ATS run vs Cal. Last week the Cardinal clinched a bowl for the 10th consecutive season as they crushed Oregon St. Meanwhile, Cal upset USC 15-14 but USC had 18-11 first down and 277-207 yard edges. USC led 14-0 late 2Q and were going in for another score but fumbled in the Cal red zone. The Bears outscored the Trojans 15-0 in the second half and snapped a 14-game losing streak to USC. Can they snap another streak here? This one should go down to the wire like so many other Cal games this season.

2★ OREGON 34 Arizona St 27. This number seems pretty short. Last week Oregon trailed Utah 19-7 at halftime but rallied to take a 25-22 lead mid-way through the 4Q. However, Utah kicked a 24-yard FG with :15 left to get the cover. On the other side, Arizona St only had 28-24 first down and 480-439 yard edges vs UCLA but did control the line of scrimmage with a 281-104 yard edge. Arizona St RB Eno Benjamin ran for 182 yards and the Sun Devils can win the Pac-12 South by winning out against Oregon and Arizona. We don't think they get it done as we're buying Oregon low after a 1-3 SU/ATS run in the last month.

WASHINGTON ST 37 Arizona 24. Arizona comes in off a bye. Meanwhile, Washington St had 26-12 first down and 477-297 yard edges in a blowout win at Colorado. Washington St's offense gets all the headlines but a big reason why Cougars are 9-1 is their defense. They are Top 20 in total defense and have best scoring defense here in 15 years! Arizona's recent surge in their last two games (blowout home wins over Oregon and Colorado are keeping this number reasonable. We like Washington St to go to 10-1 SU and ATS.

Nevada 36 SAN JOSE ST 23. Nevada fresh off a bye last week Nevada dominated Colorado St with 29-13 first down and 636-260 yard edges. The Wolf Pack actually led 49-0 entering the 4Q. Nevada QB Ty Gangi was 28 of 35 for 404 yards and 4 TD's. Meanwhile, San Jose incredibly allowed 804 total yards to Utah St in a blowout loss. While it's tempting, we're not interested in laying 2-TD's plus with Nevada here as this is the Wolf Pack's largest away favorite role since 2012.

BAYLOR 29 Tcu 24. We like Baylor here. Last week while Iowa St beat Baylor 28-14, do note that Baylor had 25-21 first down and 505-355 yard edges. Baylor missed two short FG's and were also stopped on downs at the Iowa St 12-yard and 15-yard lines on their final two possessions. Baylor QB Charlie Brewer had a good game going 26 of 36 for 288 yards and 2 TD's. Meanwhile, it looks like TCU has folded up shop for the season as the Horned Frogs have failed to cover 7 straight games and are off a blowout loss to West Virginia where they had (-7) yards rushing.

NAVY 31 Tulsa 25. Last week the Midshipmen finished a three-week stretch in which they lost to Notre Dame, Cincinnati and UCF. Those teams are a combined 28-1. While Navy is having their worst season since 2002, they have predictably not quit yet. Meanwhile Tulsa is off a blowout loss at Memphis last week. We lean with Navy here but you're not getting a discount like we expected. We actually prefer the OVER at the current number.

TEXAS A&M 33 Uab 16. Last week UAB clinched the CUSA West division in an OT win vs Southern Miss. UAB had a 304-165 yard edge including 97-5 on the ground but UAB QB AJ Erdley missed the game (? here) and Tyler Johnston was just 14 of 27 for 207 yards with 3 INT's. Meanwhile, A&M got a fortunate win and cover over Ole Miss last week (see page 1). A&M had 27-19 first down and 502-440 yard edges including 266-67 on the ground. While many will want to back UAB here, note the Blazers were crushed by Florida in a similar spot last year.

MISSISSIPPI ST 34 Arkansas 14. Last week Arkansas lost by 7 vs LSU. However, LSU had a 359-216 yard edge including 164-16 on the ground. It was a bad beat for LSU backers (see page 1). On the other side, Mississippi St was shut out at Alabama 24-0 but the Bulldogs for the most part played pretty well as they were done in a by a couple of TO's and some questionable officiating. Alabama did have 23-6 first down and 305-169 yard edges. Not sure we want to lay 21 with a Mississippi St offense that only averages 26 ppg.

West Virginia 38 OKLAHOMA ST 34. West Virginia is off a blowout win over TCU last week but do have a really big game at home vs Oklahoma next Friday. West Virginia's home/away splits are favorable for the Mountaineers here. At home they are outscoring their opponents by 31 ppg (+257 ypg). On the road they are getting outscored by 2 ppg (-87 ypg). The only problem here is what is Oklahoma St's frame of mind after coming up one play short last week vs Oklahoma last week?

Louisiana Tech 24 SOUTHERN MISS 23. Tough forgetting last year's game when So Miss scored 11 points in the final 90 seconds to get the cover on us. So Miss has pulled 3 straight outright upsets in the series. La Tech is off a lackluster game vs Rice last week. LT had 20-15 first down and 423-326 yard edges but didn't cover. Meanwhile, Southern Miss nearly pulled a big upset at UAB but came up short in OT. Note UAB had a 304-165 yard edge including 97-5 on the ground. To the wire. AKRON 28 Bowling Green 21. Last week BG got their 2nd win of the season as the Falcons had 17-11 first down and 320-166 yard edges including 178-72 on the ground. BG actually trailed 13-0 at halftime before outscoring the Chips 24-0 in the second half. Meanwhile, EMU dominated Akron with 20-6 first down and 384-90 yard edges. Akron QB Kato Nelson didn't play as Alex Ramart was 4 of 15 for 29 yards and 3 INT's. Until Nelson's status clears, we'll be sitting on the sidelines here. LSU 47 Rice 6. Last week Rice suffered its 10th straight loss after the Owls opened the season with a 31-28 win over FCS Prairie View A&M. Rice has also dropped 13 straight C-USA games. Meanwhile, LSU had a 359-216 yard edge including 164-16 on the ground in their non-cover over Arkansas. LSU led 24-3 entering the 4Q and it was certainly a bad beat (see page 1) for Tigers' backers. LSU is on a 2-10 ATS run as a 40-point or more favorite since 2007 and with A&M on deck, we're not sure if they're extremely motivated for this one.

VANDERBILT 34 Ole Miss 33. Vanderbilt needs to win out to get to a bowl. Last week Ole Miss backers suffered a bad beat as they were tied with A&M entering the 4Q (see page 1). Meanwhile, Vanderbilt also suffered a tough loss as they actually led Missouri 28-19 late 3Q. The key play saw the Commodores stopped on downs at the Missouri 1-yard early in the 4Q when they were up 28-26. Missouri then went 14 plays, 99 yards for the go-ahead TD. Vandy RB Ke' Shawn Vaughn ran for 182 yards and a TD. Another game to the wire.

Boston College 26 FLORIDA ST 24. Tough getting involved here until we know the status of BC QB Anthony Brown. Last week Brown was KO'd early in the game and the Eagles lost by 20 to Clemson as the Tigers dominated with 19-8 first down and 424-113 yard edges. Meanwhile, FSU was run over by Notre Dame as the Seminoles allowed 365 yards rushing to the Irish in the cold. FSU now needs to win out to extend their 37-year bowl streak. We have our doubts.

OKLAHOMA 51 Kansas 20. Do you really want to lay more than 5 TD's with this Oklahoma defense? Last week Oklahoma St had a 39-29 first down edge but Oklahoma was more explosive with a 702-640 yard edge and a 9.1-7.4 yards per play advantage. OSU missed an extra point after their 2nd to last TD and then went for 2 after scoring a TD with 1:03 left but missed. OU's playoff hopes had remained in the balance. On the other side, Kansas continues to play hard for fired coach David Beaty. Last week, Kansas had 19-17 first down and 347-301 yard edges but had 2 crucial TO's. Kansas St scored a 21-yard TD with 2:46 left to get the win.

WASHINGTON 44 Oregon St 13. Washington is coming in fresh off a bye while Oregon St was plastered by Stanford last week. While it's been a disappointing season for the Huskies do note that their 3 losses have come by a combined 10 points (but UW also has 3 wins by 7 points or less). We're not sure this Washington offense that is averaging 27 ppg can get enough margin here.

ARKANSAS ST 38 UL-Monroe 28. Arkansas St has won and covered the last 8 meetings vs UL-Monroe. The Red Wolves are off a blowout win over Coastal Carolina last week. Arkansas St had 23-18 first down and 454-298 yard edges and QB Justice Hansen was red hot going 18 of 20 for 253 yards and 4 TD's. Meanwhile, ULM dominated South Alabama with 26-10 first down and 551-218 yard edges including 376-129 through the air. ULM QB Caleb Evans was 27 of 32 for 367 yards and 2 TD's. Arkansas St makes it 9 in a row.

TROY 37 Texas St 14. Last week Troy remained unbeaten in Sun Belt play with a win at Georgia Southern. Troy had 24-13 first down and 454-291 yard edges and even out-rushed Georgia Southern 140-101. Meanwhile, Texas St was thumped as Appalachian St had 19-15 first down and 468-218 yard edges including 221-86 on the ground. While this line looks a bit steep, note that Troy is on a 10-1-1 ATS run as a favorite. We prefer the OVER.

UL-LAFAYETTE 38 South Alabama 21. Two teams heading in opposite directions as ULL is 6-1 ATS in their last 7 while South Alabama is 1-5 in their last 6. Last week So. Bama was dominated by ULM who had 26-10 first down and 551-218 yard edges including 376-129 through the air. Meanwhile, ULL had a 525-373 yard edge including 355-252 on the ground in their win over Georgia St. Rajin' Cajun RB's Raymond Calais had 186 rushing yards and Elijah Mitchell had 136 rushing yards. Look for them to have a lot of success vs the So. Bama rush defense. Miami, FL 27 VIRGINIA TECH 24. This game was supposed to decide the ACC Coastal this year but instead is a match-up of two of the most disappointing teams in the country. After last week's loss to Georgia Tech, Miami, FL is just 5-8 SU/3-10 ATS in their last 13 games. Meanwhile, VT actually had a 28-17 first down edge but Pitt was the far more explosive team with a 654-432 yard edge and an incredible 13.9-5.0 yards per play advantage! That 13.9 yards per play for Pitt is the largest in CFB since at least 2005! Not sure we can trust either team here.

WESTERN KENTUCKY 28 Utep 24. Could WKU HC Mike Sanford get fired after only two years on the job? It's been a total mess for WKU this season at 1-9 SU and last week they fell to FAU. On the other side, while UTEP is also 1-9, there seems to be more optimism in El Paso. The Miners are clearly an improved team under first year head coach Dana Dimel. Last year UTEP was outscored by 25 ppg (-216 ypg) and this year they are only getting outscored by 12 ppg (-82 ypg). We lean with the Miners and the OVER here.

2★ NEBRASKA 27 Michigan St 24. We like the Huskers here. The Nebraska offense is humming after its 54-35 win over Illinois last week. For the first time in school history, the Huskers have 7 straight games of at least 450 yards and they have scored at least 30 points in 5 straight. Keep in mind, Nebraska is much better than their 3-7 record indicates as they are 0-4 in games decided by 5 points or less. Meanwhile, Sparty is off a 20-point loss to Ohio St last week as the MSU offense that is averaging only 22 ppg will find it tough to keep pace here.

TEXAS 28 Iowa St 24. While Iowa St beat Baylor 28-14 last week, do note that Baylor had 25-21 first down and 505-355 yard edges. Baylor missed two short FG's and were also stopped on downs at the Iowa St 12-yard and 15-yard lines on their final two possessions. Iowa St RB Montgomery is suspended for the first half here after fighting last week. On the other side, Texas QB Sam Ehlinger has now gone 280 straight passes without a pick (Big 12 record). Last week we cashed a 3H on these pages in the Horns dramatic win at Texas Tech (Horns nearly blew a 17-point lead). We are concerned with Texas' energy level here as they have played 6 straight games decided by 7 points or less.

Use 28 UCLA 27. We have a toxic atmosphere at USC with Clay Helton likely gone. Last week the Trojans blew a 2-TD lead and lost for the first time in 15 years to Cal. Meanwhile, UCLA is playing better as of late and last week had a solid effort at Arizona St. They can make their whole season with a win here. Note that USC is 7-18 ATS their last 25 games and 7-16 ATS on the road under Helton. We lean UCLA.

FRESNO ST 28 San Diego St 17. San Diego St is not only 7-1 ATS in their last 8 games as an underdog, the Aztecs are also 7-1 SU and have pulled two upsets in the dog role this year vs Arizona St and Boise St. Speaking of Boise St, the Bulldogs blew a 17-3 lead on the Blue Turf last week as Boise had a 448-390 yard edge including 179-107 on the ground. We don't mind catching San Diego St off an upset loss to UNLV as 24-point favorites. Keep in mind, you're paying a premium on a Fresno St team that has gone 18-4-2 ATS the last two years and that premium finally caught up to them last week.

HAWAII 36 Unlv 30. This game comes down to energy level as Hawaii is fresh off a bye and has been on the islands for the last 3 weeks. Meanwhile, UNLV is playing a 7th straight week and is off a big road upset at San Diego State last week as 24-point underdogs. The thing that keeps us of Hawaii here is their horrific record as a favorite as the Rainbow Warriors are 1-16 ATS their last 17 games as a favorite. Also UNLV could get back QB Armani Rogers for this one.

Week 12 Computer Projected Lines for Every CFB Game

For the past couple of seasons we have posted computer projected lines at pregame.com. Games where there was of difference of more than 3 points saw our computer lines actually beat the Vegas line at a 155-129-7 (55%) clip the last two years. That's pretty solid and actually better than our own handicapping (much to our dismay). So far this year's plays are 50-40-3. Keep in mind, these computer lines don't take into consideration off-the-field factors like revenge or flat spots. They are basically a power-rating number difference between the two teams that also takes into consideration the home field advantage.

Of the 8 games where our computer is off more than 3 points compared to the Vegas line (highlighted), our favorite team this week to back would be Washington St -9.5.

The Comp column is the computer projected line and the Diff column is the difference between the Vegas line and the Computer line. "+" numbers in the difference column say back the underdog. "-" numbers in the difference column say back the favorite. Let us know if you have questions.

Top 20 CFB ATS Trends for Week 12

1. The UNDER is a perfect 10-0 in North Texas games this year. This week's total is 63 vs FAU.

2. Boise St is 38-17-1 ATS as a road favorite the last 11 years. This week the Broncos are 20.5-point favorites at New Mexico.

3. Iowa is on a 17-0 SU/15-1-1 ATS run as a road favorite. This week the Hawkeyes are 16-point favorites at Illinois.

4. Wisconsin is on a 12-0 SU/9-3 ATS run vs Purdue. However, this week the Badgers find themselves 4.5-point underdogs at the Boilers.

5. The home team is on a 8-0 ATS run in the Virginia/Georgia Tech series. This week the Yellow Jackets are 6.5-point home favorites vs Virginia.

6. The underdog is on a 10-0-1 ATS run in Northwestern games. This week Minnesota is a 2-point underdog at home to Northwestern.

7. Temple is 25-7 ATS in AAC play the last 4 years. This week they are 14-point favorites hosting USF.

8. Kentucky is on a 0-11 ATS run as a favorite. This week the Wildcats are 16-point home favorites vs Middle Tennessee.

9. Louisville fired head coach Bobby Petrino on Sunday. The Cardinals were just 6-21 ATS in Petrino's last 27 games including 1-9 ATS this year failing to cover the spread by 15 ppg. This week the Cardinals are 16.5-point home underdogs to NC State.

10. Auburn is on a 2-11-2 ATS run as a 3-TD or more favorite since early 2014. This week the Tigers are 28.5-point home favorites vs Liberty.

11. Air Force is on a 10-1-1 ATS run as a road underdog. This week the Falcons are 2.5-point road underdogs at Wyoming.

12. Utah St is a 27-point road favorite at Colorado St this week. That's the largest away favorite role for the Aggies in modern point spread history (40 years).

13. Syracuse is on a 9-2 ATS run as an underdog under head coach Dino Babers. The Orange have covered all 3 games as a dog this year by a total of 59.5 points. This week they are 10.5-point dogs vs Notre Dame.

14. Stanford is on a 8-0 SU/6-2 ATS run vs Cal. This week the Cardinal are 2.5-point favorites at the Bears.

15. LSU is on a 2-10 ATS run as a 40-point or more favorite since 2007. This week the Tigers are 42-point favorites hosting Rice.

16. Arkansas St has won and covered the last 8 meetings vs UL-Monroe. This week the Red Wolves are 8-point favorites hosting the War Hawks.

17. Troy is on a 10-1-1 ATS run as a favorite. This week they are 23.5-point favorites hosting Texas St.

18. USC is on a 7-18 ATS run in their last 25 games. USC is also just 7-16 ATS on the road under head coach Clay Helton. This week the Trojans are 3.5-point road favorites at UCLA.

19. San Diego St is not only 7-1 ATS in their last 8 games as an underdog, the Aztecs are also 7-1 SU. This week San Diego St is a 13-point dog at Fresno St.

20. Hawaii is 1-16 ATS their last 17 games as a favorite. This week the Warriors 6.5-point favorites at home vs UNLV.

Games in Rotation Order

HOME TEAM IN CAPS

Thursday, November 15th

SEATTLE 27 Green Bay 23. Last week we cashed on these pages with Seattle in their near upset of the Rams. However, it was the first time in franchise history that they lost outright while gaining 250 or more yards rushing. Meanwhile the Packers are off a win and cover over the Dolphins. However, note the home/away splits for Green Bay are huge this year as the Packers are outscoring their opponents by 9 ppg (+86 ypg) at home but are getting outscored by 10 ppg on the road. Seattle is 7-0-1 ATS on Thursday nights and we lean with them here.

Sunday, November 18th

Carolina 27 DETROIT 24. Detroit had covered 5 straight games until losing their last 3 games by double-digits. Last week, they were trailing the Bears by 24 points entering the 4Q (QB Stafford has been sacked 16 times in the last 2 games). Meanwhile the Panthers have extra time to stew over that blowout loss to Pittsburgh last Thursday. Speaking of Thursday, the Lions have the Bears on deck on Thanksgiving just 4 days after this. Carolina has covered their last 5 after a SU loss but this number seems a bit pricey for out liking. Pass.

ATLANTA 28 Dallas 24. Obviously, the Cowboys surprised us big time on these pages last week as they pulled the outright upset over Philadelphia on SNF. Dak and Zeke both had solid efforts and WR Cooper caught 6 passes. Meanwhile, Atlanta was on the wrong end of an upset last week as they were shockingly handled by the Browns in relatively easy fashion. The Falcons allowed 176 rushing yards to Cleveland RB Nick Chubb and now face a rejuvenated Ezekiel Elliott who is the No. 2 rusher in the league. However, Dallas does have a big game vs Washington on deck on Thanksgiving. We lean OVER.

BALTIMORE 26 Cincinnati 20. Last week Cincinnati became the first team in the Super Bowl era to allow 500-plus yards in 3 consecutive games. Cincy head coach Marvin Lewis then fired DC Austin and is likely to call the defensive plays here. He could be facing a rookie QB in Lamar Jackson here as Baltimore QB Joe Flacco is questionable as of press time. Note that AJ Green will be out here (3 TD vs Ravens in earlier match-up).

2★ Minnesota 23 CHICAGO 22. This game was flexed out to SNF. We like the Vikings here who are fresh off a bye. Minnesota should be the healthiest they've been all season on both offense and defense. Since head coach Mike Zimmer took over in 2014, the Vikings are 48-23-5 ATS (68%). While the Bears are much improved, the Vikings are still the class of the North Division and can you trust Chicago in a close game with their kicker Cody Parkey who missed four kicks last week vs Detroit?

2★ Philly (plus the points) NEW ORLEANS 30 Philadelphia 24. This is a classic "Buy Low, Sell High" handicap. New Orleans has won 8 straight games and covered 7 straight but now you are starting to pay a premium on the Saints especially after they dismantled the Bengals last week. On the other side, you're getting the Eagles at a discount after they lost outright as a TD favorite to Dallas on SNF. This is the Eagles first game as an underdog this season. Remember in last season's playoffs, they won all 3 games outright as underdogs and this is their largest underdog role since Carson Wentz took over as the starting QB (never been more than a TD dog). Finally note that Philadelphia in their last 32 games have only lost one time by more than 7 points.

INDIANAPOLIS 26 Tennessee 22. Tennessee head coach Mike Vrabel should be up for coach of the year as the Titans are fresh off back-to-back outright upset wins. Last week's win over New England was one of the biggest in recent franchise history. But now how do the Titans handle success? Meanwhile the Colts are fresh off a bye and 3-point win over Jacksonville last week (Colts actually led 29-13). QB Andrew Luck hasn't been sacked in 4 straight games and has thrown at least 3 TD passes in 6 straight games. Indianapolis has never lost to Tennessee at home with Luck under center. We lean with the Colts here.

Houston 21 WASHINGTON 19. Two teams that are much worse than their records indicate. Last week Washington somehow won a game 16-3 when their defense allowed 501 yards to Tampa Bay (out-gained by 215 yards but +4 TO's). The Redskins OL is a mash unit. Meanwhile after an 0-3 start Houston is the first team since 1970 to win their next 6 games and they are coming off a bye. However, the Texans won 4 of those games by 7 points or less. We don't want either side here.

Tampa Bay 26 N.Y. GIANTS 25. The Giants got a much needed win on MNF vs the 49ers but now return home where they are 0-4 SU/ATS this season. Meanwhile Tampa Bay is off one of the most misleading games of the 2018 season as they became the first team in NFL history to score only 3 points while putting up 450-plus yards of offense (were -4 TO's vs Washington). Tampa was inside the Washington 25-yard line 5 times! We have a slight lean on the road team here.

L.A. CHARGERS 27 Denver 19. The Broncos come in fresh off a bye but are just 2-10 SU/3-9 ATS on the road the last two years and their head coach Vance Joseph is deservedly on the hot seat. Meanwhile the Chargers are off 6 straight wins as their defense hasn't allowed a single team to top 20 points against them in their last 5 games. On the other side of the ball, Philip Rivers is having one of the best years of his career with a 21-to-4 TD-to-INT ratio. Slightest of leans on L.A.C.

ARIZONA 21 Oakland 17. We'll make a guess that this is the lowest handle of any NFL game this week. Both teams are fighting for the top pick in the NFL Draft next April. Tough making the Cardinals and their No. 32 offense favored over anyone but the Raiders have now lost 5 straight games by 14 points or more and have been outscored 75-9 in their last 9 quarters. Arizona is 5-2 ATS in their last 7 games. Pass.

Pittsburgh 26 JACKSONVILLE 22. Obviously Pittsburgh has play-off revenge from last year but this is a steep line. Why? Because the Steelers have won and covered 5 straight games and last Thursday the Steelers played one of their best games in recent memory as they hammered the Panthers (52 points was the most for them since 1984). Meanwhile, the Jags are a complete mess having lost 5 straight games (0-4-1 ATS). However, they did welcome back RB Fournette last week (109 yards) and QB Bortles had one of his better games. We're passing.

3★ Kansas City 31 L.A. RAMS 30. This game has been moved from Mexico City to Los Angeles because of concern over the field conditions. The line has only moved one point but it was through the key "3" number. We'll take advantage of that move as we like the Chiefs here. Keep in mind, the Rams had already traveled to Denver to practice in the altitude in preparation for the game in Mexico and now they have to fly back home. It's the rare case that the home team playing back-to-back home games might have more travel issues than the road team. We did cash going against the Rams last week and we feel the Rams defense is overrated after they allowed 273 rushing yards. The Rams are just 1-5-1 ATS in their last 7 games and are the Rams completely "buttoned up"? There were a lot of foolish penalties last week. We trust Andy Reid and company here as they are on a 8-1 ATS run as a dog with 7 outright upset wins.

Just missed the cut: Seattle -2.5 over Green Bay, Indianapolis -2 over Tennessee and Tampa Bay +1.5 over the N.Y. Giants.

A Special Message from Brad Powers

“The Thousands of Betting Options this Week Creating Massive Opportunity for You and Me”

I moved to Vegas for betting opportunity, and now that the legal environment for sports betting has changed, that opportunity is growing by leaps and bounds both domestically and internationally. The growth is incredible.

Do You Appreciate Our Opportunity? That opportunity is available all on a weekly basis, as shown by the following math. I had someone count the football and basketball games on the board this week. They counted 269. Let’s look at just the pointspread opportunities in these games.

On each of these games you can bet favorite or dog. Over or under. First half favorite or dog. First half over or under. Second half favorite or dog. Second half over or under. That brings us to.....

What’s the Number? There are 3,228 football and basketball wagering propositions this week alone!

What aren’t we even mentioning here? Money lines, first half money line, second half money line, teasers (on dog, favorite, over or under). There are also parlays and props. And we aren’t mentioning other sports, like hockey and soccer, which I know some of you guys follow and can develop a good opinion on.

Realistically, there are NO LIMITS: Remember all the in-game live wagering taking place and there’s nearly an unlimited amount of wagering opportunities to leverage each week.

The “Challenge Question” That Only You Can Answer: Are you doing anything to develop your knowledge and abilities to take advantage of this massive opportunity?

Knowledge for Powers: As I mentioned above, when I moved to Las Vegas a few years ago, it was largely to have access to bet higher and have access to more lines. A big benefit that I didn’t properly appreciate the importance of was being accepted into the community of professional sports bettors here. Many of them had read my newsletter for years. I’ve learned a lot from them about the sports betting world. Not about handicapping, but about HOW TO BET.

The Importance of Strategy: As I got to know some guys around town, I came to realize how big a role wagering strategy has in achieving betting success for all of us. I knew it was important but looking back I don’t think I fully appreciated the power of utilizing optimal wagering strategies. Professional sports bettors are not just about handicapping, they master betting strategy in a way that few can ever figure out on their own, even with years of wagering experience.

Wasting Time and Money: The problem is that there is a steep learning curve to learn the strategies and methodologies of professional sports bettors. And in the wagering world it takes you a while to figure things out. As that happens you’re not just wasting time, you’re losing dollars as well. Digging deeper there’s also the opportunity cost of money you could be winning.

I’ve benefited greatly from what I’ve learned, but how do I get that information to you? It’s usually shared pro-to-pro over drinks, lunch, or just sitting in a sportsbook. My appreciation for the importance of wagering strategy has been something I’ve tried to convey to you guys, but I haven’t really had a way to delve deeply and share specific betting techniques and tactics.

A Player-Friendly Solution: That’s why I’m excited to tell you about what my colleague Steve Fezzik has done for all of us sports bettors. Steve has made a high-income career out of having a better toolbox. Yes he gets on some good games, but most importantly, he knows how to profit with even the slightest edge by making the right bets, at the right time, the right way.

Steve explains this better than I do, so go here to read Steve’s story and get a feel for the dozens and dozens of wagering strategies and tactics he utilizes. Also, given my appreciation of the critical importance of wagering strategies, know that what he’s suggesting when you click the link below has my enthusiastic recommendation.

Thanks for reading. And all the best with the (much more than) 3,228 wagering opportunities in front of you this week.
