

Holy Eucharist

Celebrating the Bread of Life

Welcome to Good Shepherd, Belmont & Holy Family, Half Moon Bay

The peace of Christ be with you!

Whether you are at Good Shepherd in Belmont, or Holy Family in Half Moon Bay, we welcome you and are glad you are with us as we worship this season following the Pentecost, also called "Ordinary Time", which comes from the Latin word "ordinalis," meaning, "in succession or in order." The weeks of this season begin the Sunday following Pentecost and end the last Sunday of the Christian year, the Sunday before Advent (also called "Christ the King"). This is a time of growth, trusting that the Holy Spirit, sent by Christ, is at work within, as yeast is at work within dough. As yeast enriches and expands, the Spirit is at work in us, accomplishing abundantly far more than we can ask or imagine, not for ourselves alone, but for the life of the world.

This bulletin is a roadmap through our order of worship. Additional instructions or changes may be announced, including which hymns we are singing and where they are found. If you need help finding your way through the many books and leaflets we use, please don't hesitate to ask. The Episcopal Church uses a lot of resources for our worship, and it takes time for the "liturgy" (ritual) to become familiar for those not used to more structured worship. It's okay to set aside all the books, not worry about doing things perfectly, and simply let the service carry you along like a gentle stream. All of us were new to this form of worship once, and remember it taking time to become part of our prayer life. If you have any questions about the way we worship, and why, feel free to ask our vicar (priest), the Rev. Michael Arase-Barham. If you are visiting with us, please leave your contact information in the guest register and we will follow up with you during the week.

Also, please join us after the service for "coffee hour" so we can get to know one another better. Thank you again for joining us this morning as worship!

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

The Nicene Creed

Deacon

Let us stand and pray together the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Celebrant or Deacon concludes the prayers with an absolution or a suitable Collect.

Confession of Sin

Deacon Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
People Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.
Amen.

The Interfaith Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

Deacon We break this bread for those who journey the way of Krishna, for those who follow the path of the Buddha,
for our sisters and brothers of Islam,
for the Jewish people from whom we come,
and remembering all those who walk the way of faith.
People Blessed be God forever.

Deacon We break this bread for the earth we have wasted,
for those who have no bread,
and for ourselves in our brokenness.
People Blessed be God forever.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Peace

Celebrant The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The Invitation

Celebrant

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The table is prepared. God invites us to the banquet.

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion.

At Holy Family, the chalice on the banner side of the church contains unfermented grape juice

The Communion

A hymn or special music, may be offered.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant

Let us pray.

All

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.
