- Standardized test scores / transcript (if applicable)
- Write a short essay about yourself (see guidelines below)

Please send completed application to the address listed below by March 31, 2018

Essay Guidelines

Within the essay portion of the application you must do three things:

1. Tell the reviewers about your goals.
2. Describe any community service or other activities that have influenced your life.
3. Tell both of these things in approximately 500 words or less.

Tell about your goals:

Tell what you want to do with your life, and how the Bailey Education Foundation scholarship fits into those goals.

Tell about any community service or other activities that have influenced your life:

This is your opportunity to become a person in the eyes of the review committee. What influences your life, either through community service or about how a person, thing or event helped shape your life.

Write 500 words:

Make 500 words your target. Most reviewers are not picky about the exact number of words. However, if you write significantly less than 500 words, you won't be known as well as the other applicants.
