HFSC strives to hire a staff that includes rising high school sophomores through seniors to ensure an experienced staff as our employees become adults and pursue other employment opportunities. To aid in balancing staff age groups, we request birth dates on our application. Providing your birth date prior to hiring is optional but it does help HFSC in balancing staff age groups. We also request applicant gender to ensure we hire enough staff to have employees on each shift to attend to bath house facilities without needing to temporarily close them, and to provide staff to attend to younger members who may require assistance with gender specific needs. Gender will also be used to order lifeguard suits.
