

You are cordially invited to participate in a
Small Works Auction
November 6 – 30, 2018
Dexter Library, Northland College

Chequamegon Bay Arts Council is sponsoring a Small Works Exhibit and Auction at Northland College.

Beginning on November 6, 2018, visitors can bid on all artwork in the exhibit at the Dexter Library on the campus of Northland College.

The art will remain on exhibit over the month of November with a bid sheet attached to each piece. On November 30, a reception at the Dexter Library from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. will provide an opportunity for last-minute bidding.

You are invited to hang or display up to 3 pieces of art (2D and 3D). 3D work must be free standing or suitable for pedestal. The dimensions of each piece may not exceed 15 inches in any direction.

Free to CBAC members. Non-members are welcome to participate for a $15 fee. All proceeds will go to the artist. Each item must be labeled separately, completely ready to hang (only wires, no sawtooth hangers) with a price indicated for a minimum bid (not less than $20).

On November 1 or 2, please deliver your art, along with this form to either the Washburn Cultural Center between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. (1 E. Bayfield St., Washburn) or the Art Building at Northland College, Room 010, between 2-4:30 p.m. on Nov. 1 or between 1-4:30 p.m. on Nov. 2. If you are not a CBAC member, please leave your $15 fee, check made payable to CBAC, along with your art.

Don't miss this fun art event! There will be refreshments, last minute bidding, and people will be able to purchase and pick up their art—just in time for the gift giving season!

For more information, please contact: Jason Terry at (715) 209-3621 or Joanne Meierhofer: at (715) 685-2350.
