A Note from Rick: Markets on Tuesday were steady for the most part with no major changes to report. Two slight changes were the calf market and the slaughter cow market. Calves were a little stronger and cows were a little weaker. Well, we are moving into July and the heat and humidity has finally arrived. The rain doesn't want to let up but at this point I'm not sure we want it to. I'm looking forward to the holiday week ahead and all the local festivities that go with it. I hope everyone takes a moment on the fourth to stop and reflect on the fact that we are all truly blessed with the opportunity to live in the freedom of this great country. It's easy to get all caught up in our everyday lives and take some of these important things for granted. Have a great week and enjoy the sunshine! See you at TLA!
