GRANBY - Granby Troop 306 recently honored its three newest Eagle Scouts: Ethan Bibeau, Noah Parent and Timothy Bai Rossi.

Held at the American Legion Post 266 in Granby, family, friends and scouts gathered for the formal ceremony, followed by refreshments. These young men have become Eagle Scouts, the highest achievable rank in the Boy Scouts of America.

A very small percentage of active

Boy Scouts advance to this distinguished level.

Achieving this rank takes dedication, perseverance, hard work and the support of family, friends and fellow scouts.

In addition to the year round activities, weekly meetings, holding positions of rank with the troop and earning numerous merit badges, each Scout needed to perform a committee approved community service project.

Students awarded Holyoke Credit Union scholarships

GRANBY - Holyoke Credit Union awarded six scholarships at a recent ceremony for its 2015 scholarship program.

Thomas Paquin, Chairman of the Board of Directors and Dennis Moran, member of the Board of Directors, both members of the Scholarship Committee, presented the awards to Timothy BaiRossi of Granby, Rachael

Dearman of Holyoke, Hannah Delgado of Springfield, Michael Fleury of West Springfield, Sarah Graves of Feeding Hills and Lara McGeer of Holyoke.

Each recipient received $500 to put toward his or her college expenses.

BaiRossi is the son of Lisa and Christopher BaiRossi and will be returning to Quinnipiac

University in the fall as a sophomore majoring in Mechanical Engineering.

BaiRossi earned the status of Eagle Scout in 2014 and volunteers extensively within his community. In high school he was a member of the National Honor Society and the Hope Club and played JV and Varsity soccer.
