Prayer

Gracious God, you have been our shelter from one generation to another. You are the overarching sky, the shading tree, the deepest waters, the beating heart. You have spread your vine widely bringing us a bounty of care and nurture, fulfillment, and peace. Grow in us that we may root ourselves in your visions of justice and mercy. Open our arms that we might lift another's burdens, speak through our mouths that we might comfort the afflicted, urge our feet that we might march in solidarity with the wounded. Teach us to be the household of God, a people spreading out your everlasting love. Amen.

Prayer (I invite you to join in this prayer every day)

Most Gracious God, you have given to us gifts of fortitude, service, calling and love. Let us show our love for you by lifting up all those we name in our joys and concerns. Let our prayers bring healing and hope. You know the things that weigh heavy on our hearts. Teach us every day how to live with gratitude in the midst of turmoil and unsettledness. Lead us to create justice in a broken system, and inspire us to step forward to be in ministry with all the world. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer performed by Kathy Niguidula

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.

Psalm 113:

Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.
Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time on and forevermore.
From the rising of the sun to its setting the name of the LORD is to be praised.
The LORD is high above all nations and his glory above the heavens.
Who is like the LORD our God who is seated on high,
who looks far down on the heavens and the earth?
He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people.
He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children.
Praise the LORD.

Acts 2: 1-18: Rev. Amy

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Persians, Iranians, Khuzestanis, Iraqis, Syrians, Turks, Israelis, Asians Egyptians, Libyans, Italians, Greeks, Saudi Arabians, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes. In our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “People of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

“In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young shall see visions,
and your old shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
