EN JULEHILSEN FRA PAUL:

First and foremost! I would like to give a great big THANK YOU! To all of you who worked so hard on the Viking Fair and the Lutefisk dinner. We had many "first timers" who pitched in at the last minute. We had some 11th hour "holes" to fill at the Lutefisk dinner and you filled them admirably.

And now, on to the Holiday festivities! We have the Scandinavian Christmas Tea and the Julebord. The Tea is on Dec. 1 (Reservations: June Peterson 719-599-3235) and the Julebord is on Dec. 16. (Cleo Allgood 598-1982). One of the benefits of Sons of Norway membership is having access to a multitude of sources for information pertaining to our culture, foods, history, language and current news. A great place to start is the "Viking e-post". It can be found on line at: sonsofnorway@sofn.com. Check out the "Recipe Box" for traditional Norwegian foods.

The December Viking is loaded with pertinent information on Holiday Traditions, Cross Country skiing and Norway's role in negotiating Peace and reconciliation around the world. And be sure to check out the ads on pages 37 and 39.

In closing: It is impossible for me to express the profound gratitude I have for all of my brother and sister members of Fjellheim Lodge Sons of Norway. You have given of your time and talents many times over during the past two years. I am so proud of all of you! Mange tusen takk for alt!

Let's all support the new officers in their duties as they continue preserving and promoting our fraternalism, culture and heritage.

Gledelig Jul og Godt Nytt År
Fraternally, Paul Wiig

THANK YOU LUTEFISK HELPERS

Our Lutefisk dinner served 301 dinners. A big Thank You to everyone who helped, our table servers, cooks, sales ladies, Virginia Nelson for taking the reservations, that is a big job. Everyone who helped set up on Friday night and clean up Sunday. We now have Mike trained for Lefse making along with Lutefisk baking, a true Norwegian helping hand.

We have some Lutefisk to sell 8 pkgs of 2 pounds each at $15.00 a pkg, Call Lois 632-6003 to pick some up.

THE TAX MAN COMETH!

Dramatic tax increases are scheduled to go into effect on January 1, 2013. This makes 2012 tax planning imperative. The historically low 15% tax rate on long-term capital gains could increase to 20% or more. The 15% rate on qualified dividends could go up to as much as 44.6%. If Congress doesn't take action, the federal estate tax will increase from 35 percent to 55 percent and the exclusion amount will drop from $5.1 million per person to $1.0 million per person.

We have developed strategies that provide safety and minimize this looming taxmageddon. Sons of Norway annuities have guaranteed safety of principal, guaranteed minimum rate of return, guaranteed income for life, no sales charges or annual fees, tax deferred growth and no probate. Planning for these likely tax changes is urgent and many people are beginning the process now. The clock is ticking, you must take action to reduce your taxes before December 31, 2012.

Please give me a call to discuss any specific concerns you might have, questions or other planning alternatives and strategies.

Thank you,

IN MEMORIAM

Omer Knut Nau

July 30, 1917-November 16, 2012

Omer was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota to Knut and Evaline Lein Nau. He was the first Eagle Scout in Emmet County, Iowa and worked in retail until joining the army in WWII. He served with distinction in the artillery in several campaigns, including the Battle of the Bulge, and received 5 Bronze Stars. Being a trumpeter, he also served as his battery's bugler.

With his wife Wilma, he owned and operated the Colonial Motel on North Nevada Avenue. He was engaged in civic affairs and an active leader in the Boy Scouts.

He is survived by his wife, sons Jonathan (Debra) and James (Phyllis), six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

He and Wilma were charter members of Sons of Norway and played an energetic part in the Lodge. A source of pleasure to Lodge members is the memory of seeing the large table of Nau family members enjoying the annual Lutfisk dinners. Even this year, family members took several dinners home to celebrate this event together.

We remember Omer for his enthusiasm, smile, and charming manner. His memory cheers our hearts.

Anne Margrethe Leonard

February 8, 1930-October 19, 2012

Anne Margrethe was born in Malselv, Norway to Johannes and Johanna Helgesen. She lived north of the Arctic Circle and went to school in Tromsø, Norway and later became a registered nurse. She married Joseph Elton Leonard, a military man, and they lived at various times in Germany, England, and Panama as well as in the U.S.

She was predeceased by her husband and a son Keith. She is survived by her son Kevin (Kimberly) and two grandsons.

She was very interested in Norway and traveled there regularly to visit family and friends. She was a member of Sons of Norway and enjoyed attending cultural and social functions.

Our sympathy is extended to the family.

THE SUNNY CORNER

Happy Birthday and Happy Anniversary to everyone who is celebrating these wonderful events in the month of December. We wish you the best and hope you have a great day and wonderful celebration.

Bev Broin fell and broke her hip. She has had surgery and a "half" hip replacement, is home, and is receiving guests. Bev hopes to be able to join us for the Christmas Tea. Tania Oldervik had gallbladder surgery and spent some time in the hospital. She is healing fast and doing well enough to be back helping with the lutfisk dinner and other events at the lodge. LaRue Hanson is doing well and in therapy to get his shoulder back to as normal as possible. We wish all of our members a speedy recovery and hope to see them healthy and back to full strength soon.

This autumn, we have lost two members of the lodge. Anne Margrethe Leonard passed away on October 19th and Omer Nau passed away on November 16th. We send our condolences to your family and know that you are in our prayers.

Terry Mapstone's father died in November. Please remember Terry and BJ at this time and keep them in your thoughts and prayers.

"May Peace be your gift at Christmas and your blessing all year through!"

Merry Christmas to all and Happy New Year!

THE VIKING LOOKS FOR A PERMANENT HOME IN CHICAGO

Believed to be one of most endangered historic sites in Illinois and one of the largest remaining artifacts of the Chicago World's fair, the Viking is looking for permanent home. Constructed in 1892 and 1893, the ship—a replica of the Gokstad—was sailed by a crew of 12 from Norway to Chicago, via the Erie Canal and Great Lakes for the Chicago World's Fair of 1893.

At the close of the Fair, the Viking made it's way to New Orleans, and was later moved next to the Field Columbian Museum, a predecessor of the Museum of Science and Industry. In 1920 the ship was relocated to Lincoln Park Zoo and care of the ship transferred to the Commissioners of Lincoln Park, which later became the Chicago Park District. To make room for the Lincoln Park Zoo expansion in 1993 the ship's care was transferred to the Scandinavian-American Council and it eventually was moved to a fabric shelter in Good Templar Park in Geneva, Ill. After several attempts to secure a more permanent home for the Viking, the Scandinavian-American Council dissolved in 2001.

Since then Friends of the Viking Ship, a non-profit group established in 2008, is working toward the preservation, public display & creation of a permanent home for the ship. First conducting an assessment in 2007, then securing a $52,000 grant from American Express & the National Trust for Historic Preservation for stabilization and preservation of the Viking ship and improvements to the ship's shelter. In September a key step in the nonprofit's mission came to fruition—obtaining trusteeship of the ship from the Chicago Park District. While the ship currently remains in Geneva, Ill., and preservation efforts continue, it is the goal of Friends of the Viking Ship to see the restored ship returned to a permanent, climate controlled home in Chicago.

To learn more about the preservation of the Viking, or to plan a visit, go to www.vikingship.us/about.htm.

CHRISTMAS IN NORWAY

Christmas time is a cozy celebration full of food, gifts and many traditions. Today Norway's Christmas traditions are a combination of hundreds of different customs from all over Europe. Here are some that are well known.

Christmas Food - Christmas foods are something very special. When someone says Christmas, food is almost immediately the next thought. For many of us the feeling of Christmas is tied directly to eating plenty of good holiday foods.

Jule-ribbe, medisterkaker, medisterpølse

On Christmas Eve lutefisk and Christmas ribs or pinnekjøtt are eaten. Rice cream and caramel pudding are eaten for dessert. On Christmas day sweet treats like pepperkaker (ginger snaps), syrup snipper (crisp diamond cookies), Christmas knekk (flat bread), krumkaker (cardamom cone-shaped wafers) and marzipan are consumed.

Christmas Decorations - Decorating a Christmas tree with Christmas candles has been a tradition since trees have been put in living rooms for Christmas. This dates back to the 1600's. The candle symbolizes life and happiness in a dark time and is a perfect holiday decoration – as long as one is cautious of not starting a fire.

Many other types of Christmas decorations became widespread in the 1800's. It was very special to decorate the Christmas tree, while some decorations were also made into heart baskets that could hold sweet treats, cakes, raisins and fruits.

Christmas songs - Among some of the most popular Christmas songs are "I am so Glad Each Christmas Night", "A Child is Born in Bethlehem", and "In the Barn sits the Nisse with his Christmas Porridge." Norwegians know these songs so well they can sing them in their sleep – or at least while they walk around the Christmas tree.

Santa Claus (Julenisse) - The Nisse was found in almost every farmer's barn in the old days. They are pretty small and wear a red hat on their head. The Christmas Nisse want the farmers to be pleased with them, in return for their work they require Christmas porridge. One must not forget to leave out their porridge, because something can always go wrong on the farm as a payback.

Merry Christmas!

JUL I NORGE

Julen er en høytid fylt med kos, mye mat, gaver og masse juletradisjoner. I dag er de norske juletradisjoner en blanding av mange hundre forskjellige juletradisjoner fra hele Europa. Her er noe som er vel kjent.

Julemat - Julemat er noe helt spesielt. Når man sier jul, sier man nesten julemat i samme åndedrag. For mange av oss henger julekosen sammen med at vi får spise mye god julemat.

Julaften spises lutefisk, juleribbe eller pinnekjøtt. Det spises riskrem, multekrem eller karamellpudding til dessert. På juledagene spises det søte saker i form av pepperkaker, sirupsnipper, juleknekk, krumkaker, og marsipan.

Julepynt - Å pynte juletreet med julelys er kjent helt fra den første tiden som juletreet fikk plass i stuen. Det kan spores tilbake til 1600-tallet. Lyset symboliserer liv og glede i en mørk tid og er perfekt til julepynt – så lenge man tenker på brannfaren.

På 1800-tallet ble mye annen julepynt utbredt. Det var spesielt julepynt til juletreet, men også julepynt formet som kurver og hjerter som kunne inneholde søte saker som nøtter, kaker, rosiner og frukt.

Julesanger - Blandt de mest populære julesanger er Jeg er så Glad Hver Julekveld, Et Barn er Født i Bethlehem og På Låven Sitter Nissen med sin Julegrøt. De sangene kan nordmenn synge i søvne - eller i hvertfall samtidig som de går rundt juletreet!

Julenissen - Nisser var å finne på nesten hver bondegård i gamle dager. De er ganske små og har på en rød toppplue. Julenisser vil at husbonden skal være fornøyd med dem, og de krever bare julegrøt for arbeidet. Men til gjengjeld må man ikke glemme å sette ut grøten, for da kan alt gå galt på gården!

God Jul!

BLUETOOTH'S VIKING ROOTS

Ever find yourself wondering where Bluetooth—the unusual moniker for the secure means of exchanging wireless data among different devices—came from?

Bluetooth owes its name to its Scandinavian roots at Swedish telecommunications company, Ericsson. Inspired by the Danish Viking King Harald Blåtand, (c. 910-987) who according to lore is credited with peacefully uniting warring tribes within Denmark and Norway, creators adopted the literal English translation of "Blåtand." In fact, Bluetooth's logo incorporates the runic symbols for Harald's name, "H" and "B".

Just how did Harald Blåtand or Harald I of Denmark receive the Danish equivalent of the name "Bluetooth"? While lore includes such colorful suggestions as Harald having an affinity for blueberries in such a quantity that they stained his teeth, it is more likely believed that it was for his dark complexion which would have been unique among Vikings.

JOKE OF THE MONTH

His name was Ole, he was from North Dakota ... And he needed a loan. So... He walked into a bank in New York City and asked for the Loan Officer.

He told the loan officer that he was going to Paris for an International redneck festival for two weeks and needed to borrow $5,000 and that he was not a depositor of the bank.

The bank officer told him that the bank would need some form of security for the loan, so the Redneck handed over the keys to a new Ferrari. The car was parked on the street in front of the bank.

The Redneck produced the title and everything checked out.

The loan officer agreed to hold the car as collateral for the loan and apologized for having to charge 12% interest.

Later, the bank's president and its officers all enjoyed a good laugh at the Redneck from ND for using a $250,000 Ferrari as collateral for a $5,000 loan. An employee of the bank then drove the Ferrari into the bank's private underground garage and parked it.

Two weeks later, the Redneck returned, repaid the $5,000 and the interest of $23.07. The loan officer said, "Sir, we are very happy to have had your business, and this transaction has worked out very nicely, but we are a little puzzled. While you were away, we checked you out on Dunn & Bradstreet and found that you are a Distinguished Alumni from The University of North Dakota, a highly sophisticated investor and Multi-Millionaire with real estate and financial interests all over the world. Your investments include a large number of oil wells around Williston, ND. What puzzles us is, why would you bother to borrow $5,000?"

The good 'ole boy replied, "Where else in New York City can I park my car for two weeks for only $23.07 and expect it to be there when I return?"

His name was Ole....

Keep an eye on these ND boys! Just because we talk funny does not mean we are stupid.
