Roll Call:	Present:	Mayor Cregar	Bob Baker
		Doug Rega	Carroll Swenson
		Jeffrey Tampier	Rob Wotanowski
	Absent:	John Drummond

The following people were also present: Leslie Parikh, Borough Attorney; Linda Leidner, Deputy Borough Clerk; Frank Klemser, Violations Officer

The minutes from the March 14, 2016 Regular Meeting of the Hampton Borough Council, the minutes from the March 14, 2016 Executive Session Meeting and the March 3, 2016 Budget Workshop Meeting minutes were approved as presented.

Comments and Questions from the Public:

Missy Merkel and Amanda Smith, parents from Hampton School are looking to get the HRA started again and were looking for possible funding from the borough to offset some of the startup expenses. The Mayor and Borough Council let them know that as far a funding was concerned that was not a possibility, however; they are in favor of supporting the HRA in other ways.

Communications:

None.

Old Business:

The determination of how to handle the payment for Go Daddy to host the website was settled prior to the meeting.

Hampton Public School withdrew their application for the use of the borough park for a circus on June 28, 2016.

Reports of Committees:

Cm. Tampier reported that Alan Brower, Director of Public Works let him know that the DPW will be working at water tower and reading meters this week.

Cm. Baker reported that the Haberman Final Judgement of Compliance was answered and concerns were taken care of. Haberman will be responsible for having staff to handle the low to moderate income portion of the development both in the initial stage and after the initial stage is complete. The Borough will not be required to have a Housing Liaison on staff.

Cm. Wotanowski, Cm. Rega and Cm. Swenson had nothing to report.
