Our Community LIVING ROOM

Need a place to sit and relax? Read, Watch, or Listen! Flenniken Public Library provides everything you need to enjoy life, free with a library card. In 2015, our neighbors borrowed: 19,371 books and magazines, 4,975 movies, and 13,643 songs. As a community gathering place, the library makes the perfect sitting room to read local newspapers or magazines, hop on social media to catch up with friends and relatives, or join the coloring craze—pages and pencils available any time.

Our Community PLAY ROOM

Need a place to play and learn? Stop in the Kids' Zone and you'll see a granddaughter putting on a puppet show, brothers playing board games, and friends building houses out of the blocks. When kids come for Crafternoons on Thursdays, they're not just making art. Staff find books for Accelerated Reader quizzes and teach them how to use POWER's online databases for research projects. They practice spelling or finish their homework, surrounded by classmates.

Our Community OFFICE

Need a place to work or study? Greene County residents use the library's equipment to report timesheets, print out paystubs, update resumes, and apply for jobs. A mom was able to get a job in the Carmichaels area closer to her home and family after she received help uploading her resume. Brad was hired for a full-time position with benefits. He used the library computers daily in his search. Jerry completed his new hire training on our computers. Whether you use the library daily or simply when your printer is out of ink, Flenniken has what you need.
